MADAM MARY CATHERINE FAINT
Interlocutory Attorney

Dear Madam,

Presenting Receipt of Japan Post which shows Japan Post has received 07/11/2015 my Amended Answer for/to Petition to Cancel filed 11/05/2014 by/of plaintiff

If it could be allowed for me to present the receipts of Japan Post to show that my Amended Answer has been presented to Japan Post July 11, 2015 for TTAB, it is highly respectfully thankful.

Regarding the timing/date to present my documents to post office etc, defendant/I have been preparing/presenting my documents according to the highly respectful/dependable advice of highly respectful Representatives of USPTO, TM Information Specialists of USPTO, through 571-272-8500, telephone number of USPTO since February 07, 2014 92058656 having been filed, which is another case to/of defendant/me.

The advice is, that is, regarding the date to answer/respond for defendant etc living etc overseas such as in Japan etc, it is to be the date on which or before which I have handed/presented to a post office in Japan, not in USA.

I am not certain that the Motion for Default Judgment of/by plaintiff has been done according to the above rule etc. If not, the Motion for Default Judgment of/by plaintiff should be ignored, I think hypothetically.

But because I think it being important that to present the receipts of Japan Post which shows that my Amended Answer has been presented to Japan Post 07/11/2015, if it could be highly respectfully allowed for me to present the receipts by ESTTA, Electronic System for Trademark Trials and Appeals, it is highly respectfully thankful.

The total pages of Amended Answer is 31 pages, and including 1 page of letter for Mr. Benjamin U. Okeke, Interlocutory Attorney, and including 2 pages for post office receipts, the total pages mailed for TTAB are 34 pages.

Attached: 1) Receipts of post office in Yokohama, Japan issued July 11, 2015 2 pages
2) Receipts of post office in Yokohama, Japan issued September 06, 2015 2 pages
3) Certificate of Service 1 page

Very truly sincerely yours,

N. Minaki
