v.

Manifatture 7 Bell S.p.A.

Karl Kochersperger, Paralegal Specialist:

The motion¹ (filed December 29, 2014) to suspend this proceeding pending final determination of Civil Action No. 1:14-cv-01517-UNA filed in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware is granted as conceded.² See Trademark Rules 2.127(a) and 2.117(a).

Accordingly, proceedings are suspended pending final disposition of the civil action.

Within twenty days after the final determination of the civil action, the parties shall so notify the Board so that this proceeding may be called up for ¹ If a copy of the pleadings in the civil action was not filed with the motion to suspend, respondent is allowed until twenty days from the mailing date of this order in which to file a copy of the pleadings.

² Petitioner's response filed January 20, 2015 is noted. Petitioner provided its consent to respondent's motion to suspend in its filing.

appropriate action.³ Such notification to the Board should include a copy of any final order or final judgment which issued in the civil action.

During the suspension period, the parties must notify the Board of any address changes for the parties or their attorneys. In addition, the parties are to promptly inform the Board of any other related cases, even if they become aware of such cases during the suspension period. Upon resumption, if appropriate, the Board may consolidate related Board cases.

³ A proceeding is considered to have been finally determined when a decision on the merits of the case (i.e., a dispositive ruling that ends litigation on the merits) has been rendered, and no appeal has been filed therefrom, or all appeals filed have been decided. See TBMP § 510.02(b).
