Kosher Supervision Service, Inc.

v.

Yoel Steinberg

George C. Pologeorgis,
Administrative Trademark Judge:

On June 7, 2016, Respondent filed a consented motion to extend trial dates by thirty days to allow the parties to discuss settlement. Respondent employed the “consent motions” filing option in ESTTA, the Board’s electronic filing system. On June 7, 2016, the Board granted Respondent’s consented motion to extend.

Because Respondent utilized the “consent motions” filing option and only identified Cancellation 92061981 in his filing, the motion and the order granting the consented motion to extend did not take into consideration certain deadlines set forth in the Board’s June 1, 2016, order that concern the other proceeding in this consolidated case, i.e., Cancellation No. 92062710.

In view thereof, the Board’s June 7, 2016, order is hereby VACATED and substituted by this order. Respondent’s consented motion to extend filed on June 7, 2016 is GRANTED as follows:

Respondent is allowed until July 20, 2016 in which to file and serve a revised answer and counterclaim in Cancellation No. 92061981 consistent with the guidelines set forth in the Board's June 1, 2016, order.¹ Additionally, Respondent is allowed until July 20, 2016 in which to file and serve his answer to the petition to cancel in Cancellation No. 92062710.²

² Respondent is reminded that he must file his answers (and counterclaim, if appropriate) in each corresponding proceeding. Both answers should NOT be filed in the parent case of these consolidated proceedings.

³ In the event the parties file another consented motion to extend or suspend, the parties must utilize the "general filings" option in ESTTA and include a proposed trial schedule with the consented motion.
