Information Resources, Inc.

v.

Plug And Play Consulting

Ellen Yowell, Paralegal Specialist:

On October 14, 2015, the Board issued a notice of default against Respondent for failure to file an answer to the petition for cancellation or a motion to extend time to answer. Also on October 14, 2015, Respondent filed its answer to the petition to cancel.¹

Respondent, however, failed to inform the Board why it did not file a timely answer or seek a timely request to extend its time to answer or move to accept its late-filed answer. See TBMP § 312.02. In view thereof, Respondent remains in technical default.

In view thereof, Respondent is allowed until 30 days from the mailing date of this order in which to advise the Board why it failed to file its answer, or seek a timely request to extend its time to answer by the October 4, 2015, deadline, or ¹ Respondent's October 14, 2015 notice of appearance of counsel is noted and the Board's record has been updated accordingly.
