FURTHER CONSENT EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE A NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

With the consent of the counsel to the Applicant, Qwest Communications International Inc., a Delaware corporation having its principal place of business at 1801 California Street, Suite 5100, Denver, Colorado 80202, requests a further additional extension of sixty days from April 20, 2002 to June 19, 2002 for the filing of a Notice of Opposition to the above-identified Application.

This extension of time is required to protect Petitioner's rights while settlement discussions continue. The Applicant has given full consent to this extension. Settlement discussions have progressed to an apparent agreement for the resolution of the situation. A draft written settlement document has been provided for consideration by the Applicant and the terminology of the document has been the subject of discussions between counsel. It is expected that the settlement is near completion.

This extension is filed in triplicate. It is requested that the Board's disposition of this request be noted on one of the copies and returned to the filing correspondent identified below.

Respectfully submitted,

Qwest Communications International Inc.
