AGREED REQUEST FOR EXTENSION OF OPPOSITION PERIOD

NOW COMES Potential Opposer, GOULDS PUMPS, INCORPORATED, by its attorneys, and hereby requests a further two (2) calendar month extension from the present close of the opposition period, to and including June 17, 2002 (June 15, 2002, being a Saturday), within which to consider the filing of an Opposition or seek to resolve amicably resolve the matter through settlement pertaining to the above identified application for trademark registration.

The additional time is requested so that the parties may continue to explore possibilities of settlement to avoid the need for an opposition proceeding. The parties through counsel have already been in contact regarding the considering of the possible settlement of this matter. Counsel for the Applicant has voluntarily provided materials and information for the consideration of possible settlement and for reviewing possible settlement parameters to alleviate the need for the possible opposition. Materials and information are currently under review by potential Opposer's counsel and his client for considering possible settlement. The attorneys representing the parties are also discussing a possible meeting to outline possible settlement parameters which the parties are considering for the resolution of this application and a series of related issues. Presently, the attorneys with their respective clients are considering possible settlement parameters and counsel for the parties remain optimistic that this matter can be resolved through an amicable settlement. Additional time is needed to review possible information, consider facts and review a possible resolution of this matter by counsel and their respective clients.

Telephone approval for this extension was provided by counsel representing the Applicant.

This extension is not for the purpose of delay.

This extension is being submitted in triplicate.

Respectfully submitted,

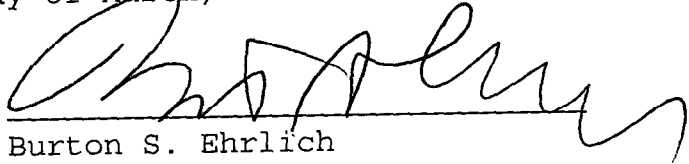

Burton S. Ehrlich, One of the
