Eric McWilliams, Supervisory Paralegal:

The Board has received the notice of opposition filed February 28, 2001, on behalf of Amitee Cosmetics, Inc.

However, the notice of opposition was lost within the office and was not associated with the electronic file of this case until only recently. The Board regrets this situation and any resulting inconvenience.

While the notice of opposition was timely filed, in view of the inordinate delay, it is necessary for the Board to ascertain whether or not the potential opposer is still interested in pursuing this notice of opposition.

In view thereof, Amitee Cosmetics, Inc. is allowed THIRTY DAYS from the mailing date of this order to inform the Board whether or not it wishes to pursue this notice of opposition. If in the time given, the Board is informed that potential opposer wishes to pursue the opposition, the Board will take action with respect to the February 28, 2001 notice. Alternatively, if the Board is informed that the potential opposer does not wish to pursue the notice of opposition, or if no response is received to this order, the fee paid will be refunded and the opposition will not receive any further consideration.
