Amitee Cosmetics, Inc.

v.

L'Oreal

Karl Kochersperger, Paralegal Specialist:

The Board's order of March 12, 2014 was forwarded to potential opposer's counsel but was returned by the Postal Service as undeliverable.

The Board has obtained a more current address for potential opposer's counsel after conducting an online search and believes that service could be effected when documents are remailed to the following:

Steven Plotkin
Jeffer Mangels Butler & Mitchell, LLP
1900 Avenue of the Stars, 7th Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90067

Accordingly, the Board's order of March 12, 2014 is remailed as indicated above.¹

The substance of the Board's order of March 12, 2014 stands and Amitee Cosmetics, Inc. is allowed THIRTY DAYS from the mailing date hereof to inform the Board whether or not it wishes to pursue this notice of opposition. If in the time given, the Board is informed that potential opposer wishes to pursue the opposition, the Board will take action with respect to the February 28, 2001 notice. Alternatively, if the Board is informed that the potential opposer does not wish to pursue the notice of opposition, or if no

Eric McWilliams, Supervisory Paralegal:

The Board has received the notice of opposition filed February 28, 2001, on behalf of Amitee Cosmetics, Inc.

However, the notice of opposition was lost within the office and was not associated with the electronic file of this case until only recently. The Board regrets this situation and any resulting inconvenience.

While the notice of opposition was timely filed, in view of the inordinate delay, it is necessary for the Board to ascertain whether or not the potential opposer is still interested in pursuing this notice of opposition.

In view thereof, Amitee Cosmetics, Inc. is allowed THIRTY DAYS from the mailing date of this order to inform the Board whether or not it wishes to pursue this notice of opposition. If in the time given, the Board is informed that potential opposer wishes to pursue the opposition, the Board will take action with respect to the February 28, 2001 notice. Alternatively, if the Board is informed that the potential opposer does not wish to pursue the notice of
