Nancy L. Omelko, Interlocutory Attorney:

A review of the record in this case reveals that in a letter dated June 30, 2002, the Board resumed proceedings with respect to the potential opposition and allowed potential opposer thirty days in which to file an opposition to the registration sought by applicant.

Since the record herein fails to show that potential opposer has filed the notice of opposition during the allowed time, the notice of opposition cannot be entertained by the Board.

Accordingly, the application file will be forwarded for issuance of the registration certificate.
