Commissioner for Trademarks

Arlington, Virginia 22202-3513

Dear Commissioner:

On October 2, 2002, I filed a new Power of Attorney designating me and my firm as the Applicant's attorney in connection with the following mark:

Mark:	INNOV-ICS
Serial No.:	76/302,713
Filed On:	August 21, 2001
Applicant:	Innov-ics

A copy of that Power of Attorney is enclosed with this letter. Notwithstanding the filing of this new Power of Attorney, the Trademark Office is still sending correspondence to Applicant's former attorney, at the law firm of Lyon & Lyon. For example, a notice of a grant of an extension of time was mailed on February 4, 2003, to Christopher Fublesang of the Lyon firm.

It is imperative that future correspondence be sent to this office. An opposition has been filed against the mark. The Lyon firm, moreover, has ceased operations, and will no longer be forwarding mail as they have before.

Please update the Trademark Office records so that further mail is sent in accordance with my October 2, 2002 Power of Attorney. If that Power of Attorney is in some way deficient, please let me know. The Office is invited to call the undersigned in Los Angeles at (213) 337-6711 if it might help in any way to advance the prosecution of this application.

Very truly yours,

Michael L. Crapenhoft
