SECOND STIPULATED REQUEST FOR EXTENSION OF TIME FOR FILING NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

The undersigned, Bausch & Lomb Incorporated a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York, with a principal place of business located on One Bausch & Lomb Place, Rochester, New York, 14604-2701, hereby requests that the time within which it may file a Notice of Opposition to the above-identified trademark application which was published for opposition in the Official Gazette of July 30, 2002, be extended an additional thirty (30) days, namely, to February 23, 2003. This request is made in accordance with Section 13 of the Trademark Act of 1946, as amended, in compliance with Rule 2.102.

The reason for this request is that the undersigned has been involved in discussions with counsel for the Applicant in order to settle any issues between the parties without the necessity of filing a Notice of Opposition, and additional time is required to complete the settlement negotiations.

On January 23, 2002, counsel for Applicant agreed to this request for extension of time.
