Rochelle Ricks, Paralegal Specialist:

On November 11, 2009, applicant filed a paper requesting that the Board further suspend action on the appeal, to allow applicant time to obtain a letter of consent, which is noted.

Accordingly, the request to suspend is granted and proceedings herein remain suspended until January 18, 2010, at such time applicant should file its appeal brief and or its letter of consent along with a request for remand to the Trademark Examining Attorney. During the suspension period the Board should be notified of any address changes for applicant or its attorney.
