APPLICANT’S APPEAL BRIEF

Introduction

Applicant, Champion International; Trademarks SARL (“Applicant”) hereby appeals to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board (“the Board”) from the Examining Attorney’s final refusal to register the mark GAME 7 ATHLETICS & Design (hereinafter, “Applicant’s Mark”), and respectfully requests that the Board reverse the Examining Attorney’s decision.

The Marks

Applicant’s Mark set forth below:

Services.: (IC 035) “Retail services, namely, bringing together for the benefit of others sports articles, excluding the transport thereof, enabling consumers to view and purchase said goods conveniently”

App. Ser. No.: 79/071,543

 Owner: Champion International; Trademarks SARL

The cited registrations are set forth below:

Mark: GAME 7
 Goods: (IC 025) "Wearing apparel, namely T-shirt, shirts, shorts, pants, sweat shirts, sweat pants, hats, visors, shoes, sandals"
 Reg. No.: 2,412,709
 Reg. Date: December 12, 2000
 Owner: Lance Roehl

Mark: GAME SEVEN
 Goods: (IC 025) "Short-sleeved or long-sleeved t-shirts"
 Reg. No.: 3,339,679
 Reg. Date: November 20, 2007
 Owner: Lance Roehl

(collectively, the "Cited Marks").

The Refusal

The Examining Attorney has continued to refuse registration of Applicant's Mark on the ground that it is likely to cause confusion with the Cited Marks owned by Lance Roehl ("Registrant"). The Examining Attorney's refusal should be reversed for the reasons set forth below.

Argument

The Examining Attorney makes two main arguments to support the continued refusal to register Applicant's Mark: (1) The word portion "GAME 7" in Applicant's Mark is the dominant portion of the mark and those words are shared with the Cited Marks; and (2) Applicant's retail services featuring "sports articles" encompass clothing, and clothing is covered by the Cited Marks. These two arguments proffered by the Examining Attorney are unsupported and flawed. As set forth below, the words "GAME 7" are diluted and weak, and therefore the dominant portion of Applicant's Mark is the design element and not the wording "GAME 7." Further, "sports articles," as set forth in the Applicant's pending application, refers to sports equipment and NOT clothing. Based on the foregoing, the Examining Attorney's decision to refuse registration of Applicant's Mark should be reversed.

I. The Shared Portion Of Applicant's Mark and The Cited Marks is Diluted and Weak and the Remaining Portions Are Sufficiently Different To Avoid Confusion.

Applicant's Mark and the Cited Marks share the terms "GAME 7" (or "GAME SEVEN"). The Examining Attorney argues that this shared term is the dominant portion of the marks and therefore must be afforded greater weight in determining likelihood of confusion. The Examining Attorney, in her analysis, fails to consider the fact the words "GAME" and "7" (or "SEVEN") are diluted and weak when applied to sports-related goods and services (i.e., Applicant's services) and clothing (i.e., Registrant's goods).

A. The Wording "GAME 7" Is Diluted and Weak.

Applicant submitted evidence in its Response to the first Office Action identifying more than 400 active trademark registrations and applications in the PTO containing the term "GAME" or "7" and covering sports or clothing goods/ services. (See Exhibits A - D.) Among those registrations and applications was the following application which contains both terms "GAME" and "7"(or "SEVEN") as set forth below:

Mark:	G7 GAME SE7EN
Goods:	(IC 035), "Preparation of custom advertisements for others in the field of sporting events and related activities; direct marketing advertising for others in the field of sporting events and related activities."
Reg. No.:	2,876,706
Reg. Date:	August 24, 2004
Owner:	Ott Communications, LLC

In addition, the following registration and application also employ both terms "GAME" and "7" as set forth below:

Mark: GAME 7 SPORTS TRAINING MEDICALLY
DESIGNED FOR YOUR GAME 7
Goods: (IC 041), "Individualized physical therapy-based physical fitness training services."
Reg. No.: 3,764,773
Reg. Date: March 23, 2010
Owner: McGovern Physical Therapy Associates

Mark: THE PBL, WHERE EVERY GAME IS A GAME 7
Goods: (IC 041), inter alia, "Entertainment and educational services in the nature of ongoing television and radio programs in the field of basketball and rendering live basketball games and basketball exhibitions"
App. No.: 77/357,273
Status: Notice Of Allowance Issued, March 3, 2009
App. Date: December 20, 2007
Owner: Premier Basketball League, Inc

Moreover, the phrase "GAME 7" is descriptive in the context of Applicant's sporting-related services since the wording refers to the final game of a best of seven sports series (i.e., a decisive or clinching game in a series). The term "GAME 7" is widely used throughout the sporting world, particularly in baseball, basketball and ice hockey sports leagues. Thus, sellers of sporting-related goods or services, like Applicant and the owners of the three third-party "Game 7" marks cited above, have adopted this highly popular and descriptive phrase to promote their sports-related goods and services. Given the diluted and descriptive nature of the shared term GAME 7, Registrant should not be able to limit the ability of others to use this widely used, descriptive phrase in the context of sports or gaming. See Affiliated Hospital Prods., Inc. v. Merdel Game Mfg. Co., 185 U.S.P.Q. 321, 324 (2d Cir. 1975) (no confusion between the marks KIK-IT and KICK-ER for tabletop soccer games).

B. The Design Portion Of Applicant's Mark Sufficiently Distinguishes Applicant's Mark From The Cited Marks.

The Examining Attorney appears to disregard the distinctive design portion of Applicant's mark, and instead focuses on comparing the "GAME 7" portion of Applicant's Mark to the Cited Marks when analyzing the likelihood of consumer confusion. However, as set forth above, that wording is diluted and weak, and thus less important in the likelihood of confusion analysis. See Leading Jewelers Guild Inc. v. LJOW Holdings LLC, 82 U.S.P.Q.2d 1901 (T.T.A.B. 2007) (finding no likelihood of confusion between LEADING JEWELERS OF THE WORLD & Design and MEMBER LEADING JEWELERS GUILD & Design); The Wooster Brush Co. v. Prager Brush Co., 231 U.S.P.Q. 316 (T.T.A.B. 1986) (finding no likelihood of confusion between POLY FLO and POLY PRO for paint brushes); Long John Distilleries, Ltd. v. Sazerac Co., 166 U.S.P.Q. 30 (C.C.P.A. 1970) (no likelihood of confusion between LONG JOHN for scotch whiskey and FRIAR JOHN for brandy) It is the design portion of Applicant's mark – and the lack thereof in the Cited Marks – that should be afforded greater weight in determining likelihood of confusion. See Watermark, Inc. v. United Stations, Inc., 219 U.S.P.Q. 31, 33 (C.D. Cali 1982)..

The additional, distinctive design element present in Applicant's Mark sufficiently distinguishes Applicant's Mark from the Cited Marks. Applicant's Mark features two design elements. The number 7 within Applicant's Mark is positioned on an irregular oval shield, ringed by a second irregular oval, and superimposed on a rectangle. Applicant's Mark also includes a second design element: an angle symbol comprised of two perpendicular lines creating a right angle under the letters C and S in the term ATHLETICS. The term GAME in Applicant's Mark appears in lower case letters, while the term ATHLETICS appears in capitals. The distinguishing nature of this design is enhanced in light of the diluted and weak nature of the shared wording "GAME 7." Watermark, 219 U.S.P.Q. at 33; Wooster Brush, 231 U.S.P.Q. at 318.

In dismissing the importance of Applicant's design element, the Examining Attorney relies upon In re Dakin's Miniatures, Inc., 59 U.S.P.Q.2d 1593 (T.T.A.B. 1999), and Amoco Oil Co. v. Amerco Inc., 192 U.S.P.Q. 729 (T.T.A.B. 1976), to support the theory that words and not design elements are considered the dominant portion of a mark for purposes of determining likelihood of confusion. First, there is no such "general rule as to whether letters or designs will dominate in composite mark." In re Electrolyte Laboratories, Inc., 16 U.S.P.Q.2d 1239, 1240 (Fed. Cir. 1990). Second, the facts in the cases relied upon by the Examining Attorney are completely distinguishable from the facts in the present case since, unlike Applicant's Mark and the Cited Marks, the marks in those cases did not involve shared terms that were diluted or weak. Therefore, those cases should not be given any weight by the Board.

II. The Sporting Articles Covered By Applicant's Mark Does Not Include Clothing, Thus Applicant's Services and Registrant's Goods Are Not So Related To Cause Consumer Confusion

The Examining Attorney makes the erroneous generalization that "Applicant's services feature 'sports articles,' which encompasses [Registrant's] 'wearing apparel, namely T-shirt, shirts, shorts, pants, sweat shirts, sweat pants, hats, visors, shoes, sandals,[and belts],' and 'Short-sleeved or long-sleeved t-shirts,' as these goods may be used and worn while playing sports." First, the Examining Attorney's generalization is incorrect. Sporting articles, as referenced in Applicant's pending application, refers to sports equipment (e.g., tennis racquets, basketballs, baseball bats, helmets, hockey equipment, etc.) and NOT clothing.¹ Second, Examining Attorney connects "sporting articles" to clothing by arguing that clothing "may be used and worn while playing sports." This connection is tenuous at best since clothing may be used and worn in relation to a variety of activities. That fact should not automatically transform

1. If permitted by the Board, Applicant is willing to amend its application to narrow the definition of "sports articles" to "sporting equipment" and to specifically exclude clothing from its application if necessary.

clothing into a good that is universally related to all other goods and services simply because they may be worn in relation to those goods and services.

Moreover, the Examining Attorney again relies upon a series of inapposite cases to support the general proposition that a likelihood of confusion exists between Applicant's retail services featuring sporting articles and Registrant's clothing goods. Again, these cases are distinguishable from the present circumstances. Namely, the Examining Attorney cited the following cases: Steelcase Inc. v. Steelcare Inc., 219 U.S.P.Q. 433 (T.T.A.B. 1983) (holding there was a likelihood of confusion between the marks STEELCARE covering refinishing services for office furniture and STEELCASE covering office furniture); Mack Trucks, Inc. v. Huskie Freightways, Inc., 177 U.S.P.Q. 32 (T.T.A.B. 1972) (finding a likelihood of confusion between similar marks covering trucking services and motor trucks and buses); In re the U. S. Shoe Corp., 229 U.S.P.Q. 707 (T.T.A.B. 1985) (finding a likelihood of confusion between marks covering retail women's clothing store services and women's clothing and a mark covering uniforms); and BRT Holdings, Inc. v. Homeway Inc., 4 U.S.P.Q.2d 1952 (T.T.A.B. 1987) (finding a likelihood of confusion where one mark covered the sale of home furnishings and appliances, and the other mark covered rental services of the same goods. These cases are all distinguishable from present case because the services in those cases directly pertained to the same goods covered by the other mark at issue. These cases would be applicable if Applicant's mark covered "retail services featuring clothing," however as established above, that is not the case here. Therefore, those cases are not applicable to the facts in the instant case and should not consider in the instant analysis.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth herein, Applicant submits that there is no likelihood of confusion between Applicant's Mark and the Cited Marks. Accordingly, Applicant's Mark is entitled to registration. Applicant therefore respectfully requests that the Board reverse the Examining Attorney's decision refusing registration of Applicant's Mark.
