Victoria von Vistauxx, Paralegal Specialist:

On April 28, 2015, Applicant filed a request for suspension of appeal and a request for remand.

Applicant seeks remand of the subject application to the Trademark Examining Attorney, to address two new issues raised by the Examiner in the Reconsideration Letter issued on February 24, 2015.

Accordingly, good cause having been shown, the request for remand is granted, action on appeal is suspended and the file is remanded to the Trademark Examining Attorney for consideration of Applicant's response and proposed amendments.

If the proposed amendment is accepted, and the mark is found to be registrable on the basis of this paper, the appeal will be moot and proceedings on the appeal will terminate in due course. If the amendment is accepted, but refusal is maintained, the Trademark Examining Attorney should issue an office action so indicating, and return the file to the Board which will then allow Applicant time to file its appeal brief.<sup>1</sup>

However, if the Trademark Examining Attorney believes that the problem with the proposed amendment can be resolved, the Examining Attorney is encouraged to contact Applicant, either by telephone or written Office Action, in an attempt to do so.

<sup>1</sup> If the Examining Attorney believes that the proposed amendment is unacceptable because it exceeds the scope of the original identification, or the identification as it has subsequently been amended, then the Examining Attorney may not issue a final refusal unless applicant was previously advised that amendments broadening the identification are prohibited under Trademark Rule 2.71(a).
