Eric McWilliams, Supervisory Paralegal:

On January 17, 2014, applicant filed a request for remand of application to the Trademark Examining Attorney. The applicant seeks to have the Examining Attorney consider an Amendment to Allege Use and request to amend the application to the supplemental register.

In view of the reasons given therein, the request for remand is granted. Action on the appeal is suspended, and the file is remanded to the Examining Attorney.

In the event that the Trademark Examining Attorney allows the application on the Supplemental Register, the appeal herein will be moot. If the Examining Attorney ultimately issues a final refusal to register upon the Supplemental Register, the "six-month response" clause appearing on the letter in which such action is taken should
