ARGUMENT(S)
ARGUMENTS The Trademark Examining Attorney has refused registration of the mark arguing that the mark is primarily merely a surname as the purchasing public would view the mark as a surname. The Trademark Examining Attorney has cited pages from Whitepages.com arguing that this establishes the surname significance of HINTERMANN. This evidence from the Whitepages.com shows the applied-for mark has appeared 35 times as a surname in a nationwide phone directory of names. There are three hundred million people in the United States and the phone directory should represent at least half of our population. This evidence in itself shows that the use of the mark as a surname is rare and the mark would not be viewed as a surname. The citations of In re Eximius Coffee, LLC, 120 USPQ2d 1276 (TTAB 2016) and In re Petrin Corp., 231 USPQ 902, 903 (TTAB 1986) state that there is no minimum amount of evidence needed to establish that a mark is primarily a surname. The Trademark Examining Attorney attached evidence showing the suffix "mann" being commonly used in German origin. One cannot piece together ad hoc a suffix or a prefix to find a surname. Attached is Exhibit A showing that 981 marks with the suffix "MANN" are live and pending. A listing of the first 600 "MANN" suffix marks is included showing over 400 existing live registrations. Representative registrations are also attached but are separated. The present mark is not primarily merely a surname with the word SERIES included. Furthermore, the Section 2(e)(3) ground of rejection requires that a mark must be primarily merely a surname. This is not the case of the present mark. That the degree of rareness of the surname is material to the Examining Attorney's determination of registration is corroborated by the legislative history. During the hearings on H.R. 4744, Rogers made the following statement in support of retaining the word "primarily" in the language of what is now Section 2(e)(3): "Mr. Rogers. No; I do not think so at all. The difficulty about [Fenning's proposal which would have deleted 'primarily' from the draft] is that almost every word you can think of is somebody's surname, somewhere, and there has been a practice in the office of the Commissioner of Patents, which was born a number of years ago that any mark for which registration was applied, which was borne by some person, somewhere as a name such as Cotton, King, or whatnot, they would refuse registration on the ground that they were merely the names of individuals." (emphasis added). A search of the top 2000 surnames most occurring surnames in the United States does not include HINTERMANN. A copy of the surnames where Hintermann would appear if it was a common surname taken from the American Surnames by Elsdon C. Smith, Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. (2003) was submitted as Exhibit A in the previous Amendment.

The fact that a mark could be found a surname does not by itself mean that the mark is primarily merely a surname. As noted in the case of In re Garan, Inc., 3 USPQ 2d 1537 (TTAB 1995), six individuals found with the same surname (Garan) indicated that the name was an extremely rare surname and would not form the basis for a rejection that GARAN is primarily merely a surname.

See also, In re Benthin Management GmbH, 37 USPQ 1332 (TTAB 1995) where BENTHIN was found to be a rare surname (100+ persons out of a PHONEDISC U.S.A. data base of 76 million listings) and thus would not be perceived as primarily merely a surname and In re Sava Research Corp., 32 USPQ2d 1380 (TTAB 1994), one ten-thousandth of one percent of surnames in data base showed SAVA to be a rare surname. Such holdings have been followed by the Board and other courts in numerous other decisions.

The Examining Attorney is correct that goods sold by Applicant were initially developed and patented by Dr. Beat Hintermann in Europe, however, this does not mean that the general public in the United States would believe that the name is a surname.

Filed concurrently with this response is a Notice of Appeal. If any additional charges are required for the appeal, please charge the undersigned's Deposit Account Number 07-1340.

In view of the above arguments, it is requested that the refusal to register be withdrawn and passage to publication is respectfully requested.

Request for Reconsideration after Final Action

To the Commissioner for Trademarks:

Application serial no. 87199589 HINTERMANN SERIES(Standard Characters, see <https://tmng-al.uspto.gov/resting2/api/img/87199589/large>) has been amended as follows:

ARGUMENT(S)

In response to the substantive refusal(s), please note the following:

ARGUMENTS

The Trademark Examining Attorney has refused registration of the mark arguing that the mark is primarily merely a surname as the purchasing public would view the mark as a surname. The Trademark Examining Attorney has cited pages from Whitepages.com arguing that this establishes the surname significance of HINTERMANN. This evidence from the Whitepages.com shows the applied-for mark has appeared 35 times as a surname in a nationwide phone directory of names. There are three hundred million people in the United States and the phone directory should represent at least half of our population. This evidence in itself shows that the use of the mark as a surname is rare and the mark would not be viewed as a surname.

The citations of In re Eximius Coffee, LLC, 120 USPQ2d 1276 (TTAB 2016) and In re Petrin Corp., 231 USPQ 902, 903 (TTAB 1986) state that there is no minimum amount of evidence needed to establish that a mark is primarily a surname.

The Trademark Examining Attorney attached evidence showing the suffix "mann" being commonly used in German origin. One cannot piece together ad hoc a suffix or a prefix to find a surname.

Attached is Exhibit A showing that 981 marks with the suffix "MANN" are live and pending. A listing of the first 600 "MANN" suffix marks is included showing over 400 existing live registrations. Representative registrations are also attached but are separated.

The present mark is not primarily merely a surname with the word SERIES included. Furthermore, the Section 2(e)(3) ground of rejection requires that a mark must be primarily merely a surname. This is not the case of the present mark. That the degree of rareness of the surname is material to the Examining Attorney's determination of registration is corroborated by the legislative history. During the hearings on H.R. 4744, Rogers made the following statement in support of retaining the word "primarily" in the language of what is now Section 2(e)(3):

"Mr. Rogers. No; I do not think so at all. The difficulty about [Fenning's proposal which would have deleted 'primarily' from the draft] is that almost every word you can think of is somebody's surname, somewhere, and there has been a practice in the office of the Commissioner of Patents, which was born a number of years ago that any mark for which registration was applied, which was borne by some person, somewhere as a name such as Cotton, King, or whatnot, they would refuse registration on the ground that they were merely the names of individuals." (emphasis added).

A search of the top 2000 surnames most occurring surnames in the United States does not include HINTERMANN. A copy of the surnames where Hintermann would appear if it was a common surname taken from the American Surnames by Elsdon C. Smith, Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. (2003) was submitted as Exhibit A in the previous Amendment.

The fact that a mark could be found a surname does not by itself mean that the mark is primarily merely a surname. As noted in the case of In re Garan, Inc., 3 USPQ 2d 1537 (TTAB 1995), six individuals found with the same surname (Garan) indicated that the name was an extremely rare surname and would not form the basis for a rejection that GARAN is primarily merely a surname.

See also, In re Benthin Management GmbH, 37 USPQ 1332 (TTAB 1995) where BENTHIN was found to be a rare surname (100+ persons out of a PHONEDISC U.S.A. data base of 76 million listings) and thus would not be perceived as primarily merely a surname and In re Sava Research Corp., 32 USPQ2d 1380 (TTAB 1994), one ten-thousandth of one percent of surnames in data base showed SAVA to be a rare surname. Such holdings have been followed by the Board and other courts in numerous other decisions.

The Examining Attorney is correct that goods sold by Applicant were initially developed and patented by Dr. Beat Hintermann in Europe, however, this does not mean that the general public in the United States would believe that the name is a surname.

Filed concurrently with this response is a Notice of Appeal. If any additional charges are required for the appeal, please charge the undersigned's Deposit Account Number 07-1340.

In view of the above arguments, it is requested that the refusal to register be withdrawn and passage to publication is respectfully requested.
