Serial No. 87/556,284

REQUEST FOR 60-DAY EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE MAIN APPEAL BRIEF IN EX PARTE APPEAL

DMS Apex Holdings LLC (“Applicant”) respectfully seeks a sixty (60) day extension of time to file its main appeal brief in the above-referenced ex parte appeal. Applicant’s current deadline is March 2, 2020 (the March 1 deadline is a Sunday and moves to Monday).

Applicant seeks this extension so that Applicant may more fully consider the facts in this dispute and consider its position further, and it would be desirable to have additional time to investigate whether it will be possible to resolve this dispute via a potentially less expensive or more expeditious approach (for example, third-party agreements that would potentially resolve the remaining issues). In addition, Applicant is also actively considering its procedural options in this regard. Applicant does not seek this extension for purposes of delay or any other purpose that would not justify the extension, and instead, Applicant seeks this extension in the interests of judicial economy and for the other reasons referenced above.

Given the totality of circumstances, Applicant respectfully submits that a 60-day extension of its current deadline is reasonable. Applicant also respectfully submits that this extension request accords with Section 1203.02(d) of the Trademark Board Manual of Procedure (TBMP), and there is sufficient good cause for the granting of this extension. See TBMP 1203.02(d) (“An extension of time for filing an appeal brief in an ex parte appeal to the Board may be granted by the Board upon written request showing good cause for the requested extension. The determination of good cause will be based upon all relevant circumstances, including the length of time of any previously granted extensions and the reason(s) for the requested extension(s)”). Applicant thanks the Board for its time and consideration.
