RESPONSE TO OFFICE ACTION

Attn: John Sullivan
Law Office 114

I. INTRODUCTION

Applicant TLJ Capital Group, LLC (“Applicant”) hereby submits this response to the December 20, 2018 Final Office Action from Examining Attorney John Sullivan (“Trademark Examiner”) refusing to register the Mark, “POOCHES PARADISE”, Serial Number 87/584,100 (hereinafter “the Applied-For-Mark”).

The Trademark Examiner objects to registration of the Applied-For-Mark on the ground that, pursuant to Section 2(d), it purportedly is confusingly similar to marks held by the same owner, Registration Nos. 3,037,646; 4,271,371; and 4,271,373 (“Cited Marks”). Applicant respectfully disagrees with the Section 2(d) objection for the reasons discussed immediately below.

Applicant has presented its arguments that there is no likelihood of confusion because when all of the relevant DuPont factors are considered, the analysis is in favor of registration. Plus Products v. Plus Discount Foods, Inc., 722 F. 2d 999, 1004 (2d Cir. 1983) (applying the Second Circuit’s equivalent test under Polaroid Corp. v. Polaroid Electronics Corp., 287 F.2d 492 (2d. Cir. 1961)); McCarthy on Trademarks and Unfair Competition § 24:43 (Fifth Ed. 2017). No single factor is determinative; “each must be considered in the context of all the other factors.” Plus Products, 722 F.2d at 1004. Applicant argues that there is no confusion because there are differences in the conditions at purchase, pet owners are discriminating and make careful decisions concerning the care of their pets so as to dispel any likely confusion, the Cited Marks are weak due to the volume of “paradise” uses in the relevant space, the marks are dissimilar, and Applicant’s Mark and the Cited Mark have co-existed without confusion.

The Examiner states that it was unpersuaded because it has no proof that pet owners are careful in considering where they are boarding their pets (thereby refuting application of the discriminating purchaser standard), and Applicant did not submit evidence that the Cited Marks are entitled to a narrow scope of protection due to the volume of similar uses of “paradise” marks. Applicant incorporates its response to the non-final office action herein, and further responds as follows.

Applicant argues that pet owners are particularly attentive in selecting services for their family pets, and thus are likely to readily recognize the differences between the Applied-for-Mark, POOCHES PARADISE, and the services associated there-with, and the Cited Marks. Cohn v. Petsmart, Inc., 281 F.3d 837, 843 (9th Cir. 2002) (“...[P]et owners should be particularly attentive in selecting a veterinarian for their family pets, and thus are likely to perceive the differences between [Plaintiff’s] veterinary clinic and [the Defendant].”).

Importantly, it follows that any pet parent who cares enough to obtain Applicant (or Registrant’s) services is someone that is careful in looking at the particular source of the services, and associated offerings. Applicant is unsure of exactly what it could submit to show that parents are careful in the selection of services for their pets but asserts that this conclusion is valid on its face. Moreover, given the volume of options, pet parents must be careful and discriminating. Applicant has located no less than the following websites that offer services in the same or similar space as Registrant, all of which use the word element “PARADISE”, some of which use a mark identical to Registrant, and none of which are Registrant:

See Exhibit 1. Some of the above are registered. See Exhibit 2.

In light of the market realities, Applicant seeks to register its mark, POOCHES PARADISE, and have the ability to protect its mark under federal law. Applicant recognizes the strength and somewhat limited breadth of the Applied-for-Mark, even when registration is granted, given the number of establishments in the market that offer similar services.

Examiner's refusal is tantamount to giving Registrant a monopoly over the field whereby the service provider uses the word element "pet" and uses the word element "paradise". Registrant is not entitled to, and in fact does not have, ownership of all "paradise"-containing trademarks in this space. Registrant recognizes as much as it has not policed use of its identical mark in the same space (as many of the above websites have been in existence for years).

Importantly, this speaks to the requirement that pet parents must be careful, and are discriminating in seeking the services they desire for their pet. The First Circuit has reasoned that the sophistication of consumers is perhaps the "most critical factor" in the likelihood of confusion analysis because well-trained and focused consumers are highly unlikely to mistake one party's product for another. Astra Pharm. Prods., Inc. v. Beckman Instruments, Inc., 718 F.2d 1201, 1206 (1st Cir. 1983). The elevated "discriminating purchaser" standard is the appropriate standard in this case. The services offered in association with the Mark are not "impulse" purchases. Rather, the dog-care services offered by Applicant are only purchased after a careful search, likely involving background research, to find the optimal experience for the family dog. The services offered under the Cited Marks do not appear to be limited to dogs, but nevertheless, customers who ultimately seek the services associated with the Cited Marks for the family pet are equally discriminating. Applicant's target market is comprised of focused, sophisticated and purposeful shoppers who are looking for particular services. Consequently, these consumers are highly unlikely to become confused.

Applicant further argues, and Examiner is silent on, the fact that while both the Applied-for-Mark and the Cited Marks use the word element "Paradise", the services offered by each are not sold by verbal order. As such, confusion is not likely. Cf. Krim-Ko Corp. v. Coca-Cola Bottling Company of New York, 390 F.2d 728, 731-32 (USCCPA 1968). While it may not be a single determinative factor, the method of ordering or purchasing a product is a relevant consideration to how consumers or potential consumers might perceive a mark.

While the Examiner was not persuaded by the fact that Applicant's Applied-for-Mark and the Cited Marks have coexisted without actual confusion for over ten years, Applicant further notes that there has also been no confusion amongst the several common law marks as well.¹ The absence of confusion is strong evidence favoring registration of Applicant's Mark. See Plus Products, 722 F.2d at 1006; Pignons S.A. de Mecanique de Precision, 657 F.2d at 490.

Applicant has further argued that the Trademark Office has allowed hundreds of third-party registrations utilizing the word elements contained in the Cited Marks, "Pet" or "Paradise," many in the same or related International Class as the Cited Marks (classes 41, 43 and 44). The Applied-for-Mark does include the word element "Pooches" which is intended to be suggestive of "dogs". The Trademark Examiner's position that the mere use of the word elements "Pooches" and "Paradise" will lend to confusion is tantamount to giving unduly broad protection to the Cited Marks, despite the crowd of registrations that contain the same or similar word elements.

Evidence that the consuming public is exposed to third-party uses of similar (or identical) marks on similar goods/services "is relevant to show that a mark is relatively weak and entitled to only a narrow scope of protection." Palm Bay Imps., Inc. v. Veuve Clicquot Ponsardin Maison Fondee en 1772, 73 U.S.P.Q.2d 1689, 1693 (Fed. Cir. 2005); see also TMEP § 1207.01(d)(iii). A portion of a mark may be weak if it is in common use by third parties. See Colgate-Palmolive Co. v. Carter-Wallace, Inc., 432 F.2d 1400, 167 U.S.P.Q. 529 (C.C.P.A. 1970). The number and nature of similar marks in use on similar services has a significant impact on the strength of a mark. See Loyds' Food Prods., Inc. v. Eli's, Inc., 987 F.2d 716, 768 (Fed. Cir. 1993). "Evidence of widespread third-party use, in a particular field, of marks containing a certain shared term is competent to suggest that purchasers have been conditioned to look to other elements of the marks as a means of distinguishing the source of goods or services in the field." In re Broadway Chicken, Inc., 38 U.S.P.Q.2d 1559 (T.T.A.B. 1996); see also TMEP § 1207.01(d)(iii).

Because of the meaningful differences between the parties' marks and because of the sophistication and discernment of the consumer of the services offered in connection with these marks, it is unlikely that customers will be confused between the services offered by the parties. In other words, as a result of the large number of third-party registrations and uses of "pet" and "paradise", and particularly in light of the sophistication and discerning nature of pet parents, as discussed above, the public is presumed to be readily capable of distinguishing between marks incorporating the terms based on even slight differences. See First Sav. Bank, F.S.B. v. First Bank System, Inc., 101 F.3d 645, 653-55, 40 U.S.P.Q.2d 1865 (10th Cir. 1996) ("When the primary term is weakly protected to begin with, minor alterations may effectively negate any confusing similarity between the two marks"); General Mills, Inc., supra, 824 F.2d at 626 ("Determining that a mark is weak means that consumer confusion has been found unlikely because the mark's components are so widely used that the public can easily distinguish slight differences in the marks, even if the goods are related"). The visual differences between the Applied-for-Mark and the Cited Marks only further bolsters the lack of a likelihood of confusion.

Applicant has further argued, and maintains that the overall consumer/commercial impression of Applicant's Mark and the Cited Marks is different. Phonetically, the Applied-for-Mark stands out for its length and suggestiveness. The word element "POOCHES" as used in the Applied-for-Mark is longer than the word element in the Cited Marks, "Pet". Further, the word element “POOCHES” is argued by Applicant to be suggestive of a dog, while the word element “Pet” is attributable to all domestic animals, not just dogs. The Cited Mark consisting of a design, Registration Number 4,271,371, has even less risk of confusion with the Applied-for-Mark. The overall marketplace perception would differ greatly here, factoring in color scheme, font, layout, and the distinct design features of this Cited Mark relative to the standard characters of the Applied-for-Mark. . See Gruner + Jahr USA Publishing v. Meredith Corp., 991 F.2d 1072, 1078, 26 U.S.P.Q.2d 1583 (2nd Cir. 1993). The Applied-for-Mark appears in standard character block lettering while this Cited Mark has lower-case lettering. This Cited Mark consists of the silhouette drawing of the front view of a sitting dog with its nose pointed up, wearing a collar, and no visible tail. The Applied-for-Mark has no design. The visual impact of these marks is starkly different because these marks are different.

This Cited Mark is also used in connection with a tagline, which reduces or outright eliminates any likelihood of confusion. Cohn, 281 F.3d at 842 (citing 3 J. Thomas McCarthy, McCarthy on Trademarks and Unfair Competition § 23:47 (4th ed. 1997)). The tagline used with this Cited Mark is “paradise for pets.” The Applied-for-Mark has no tagline. Consequently, the considerable differences between the Applied-for-Mark and the Cited Marks, in sight, sound and overall commercial impression, further dispel any potential for consumer confusion. This conclusion is further supported by the sophisticated and discerning nature of the target market for the services provided in connection with the Applied-for-Mark.

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, stated herein and in the initial response to Office Action, Applicant respectfully requests that Examiner withdraw its refusal and that the Mark be permitted to proceed to publication.

Your guilt-free solution to enjoying your vacation or business trip when you have to be separated from your pet!

Our Facility

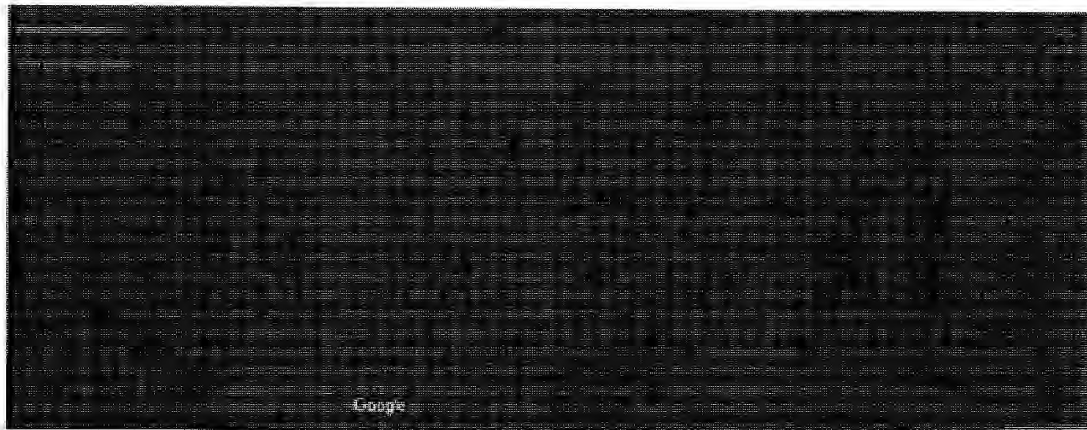

All Paws Welcome!

Paws Inn Paradise is a 9,000 square foot facility that opened in January 2006. We have an in-ground, heated swimming pool that was built specifically for the dogs. It slopes from 6 to 30 inches at it's deepest end. The perfect size for all dogs. We have a very large Doggie Day Care room filled with toys and lots of love, as well as webcams so you can watch all day. After the first visit, the dogs are pulling their owners across the lobby to get back to day care because they love it so much!

We have 10 Penthouse Suites. These are private rooms that were built to spoil your pet in. We have 17 Presidential Suites that are oversized and 9 of which have doggie doors for access to their own fenced in patio. Five others have low to the floor pool view windows. All of our suites have 19" color televisions, and web cams so you can log into our website (from your laptop or personal computer) and see exactly what your pet is doing. If your pet is scheduled for day care or pool play time while they are boarding with us, you can watch them from the live doggie cams that are open to the public every day.

We have 42 economy quarters and another 18 economy indoor/outdoor runs. These have the fence-enclosed outdoor patios, but no TV's or webcams. Please stop in to meet everyone and see why we're named, Paws Inn Paradise!

Happy Summer!

Happy Summer, it is finally here!

As our busy season gets underway, we just want to remind our customers that we do consistently fill up from mid-June to Labor Day. Once your travel is booked it is always a great idea to call us or submit a reservation online. We have recently added two new members to our Paradise Crew, please welcome Dani and Lexie. They are both avid pet lovers with a lot of unique experiences to bring to your pets' care. Dani will be a year-round addition and Lexie will be helping us during the busy Summer and Winter Holiday season. Feel free to introduce yourself to them. We appreciate your patience as we bring them on board and up to speed! You can also say "hi" to: Bri (Assistant Manager), Joanna (Kennel Lead), Juan (Facilities Supervisor), Laura (Kennel Tech), Jonathan (Manager), and David (Owner).

Our sunshades are all installed and have already received a few tune-ups thanks to some of the powerful storms we have had the last few weeks. The misting system is getting a final touch up June 14th but is operating and ready for the warmer weather.

Our daycare dogs are a constant delight and extremely valued customers here at Paradise for Pets. We have had a tremendous amount of growth in attendance the last 8 months and couldn't be happier about it. We will have to start introducing Capacity Limited daycare days. As temperatures, humidity and the chance of strong thunderstorms soar, so does our volume of guests. This can create an uncomfortable situation in our indoor facility. The day before we expect difficult weather, we will be sending our Daycare families an automated text message warning of limited space in Daycare the following day and asking for reservation/call before bringing your pet in. We hate to change our "as you need it" policy on daycare but this is for the safety and comfort of the pets. I only expect to have a handful of days fall into this category each year.

We deeply appreciate your understanding!

We all hope your summer gets off to an amazing start and are excited to have your pets spend some time with us!

Here are some pictures of good boys and girls from the spring season!

Spring has Sprung, we hope
Spring is here, and it is about time!

We hope you all have made it through this wet and chilly winter safely and with your sanity intact! Here at Paradise for Pets we are prepping for the warmer months. We are checking our sunshades and ordering new ones to keep our pens cool, prepping some yards to be reseeded with grass and you may have noticed our giant pile of mulch is changing size by the day.

With Spring right around the corner, we will have a closure and a restricted hours day for Passover. On April 21st we will just be open 9-11am in observance of Passover and the office will be closed all day April 26th. We really appreciate your understanding and patience with us, as these dates are also over the Spring Break for most school districts. As always, we will be here caring for our guests over the Religious closing, just like a Saturday.

With the return of Spring, we also want to remind everyone that Ticks, Mosquitos and Fleas will be poking there pesky biting heads out as well. Frontline, K-9 Advantix, Sentinel, and NexGard are your best defense against these threats. They also are required for our canine guests from April-October. We will be having our outdoor areas treated by Mosquito Squad to limit our guest exposure as best we can.

Happy Spring!

Autumn is Falling

October has flown by and November has decided to hibernate and let winter take over. The winter holidays are quickly approaching. The leaves went from green and healthy to making the best dog couch possible. Flea and tick treatments are no longer required for visits at Paradise, this will be the case until March. We still think they are a great idea and provide excellent protection from biting bugs and their associated illnesses.

It often comes as an unwelcome surprise to our customers, but we do book up about 15 weeks out of the year. Prince George's county rates Paradise for pets to 110 dogs and 5 small mammals (cats, rabbits, etc.) for overnight care. We try our absolute best to make sure that we can get as close to that number as possible, while still making sure everyone has a safe, pleasant and fun stay.

Unfortunately, we are currently at capacity for the Thanksgiving holiday. We have a waitlist and every year we move guests off the list and into a yard! This is also why we do not charge a cancellation fee, there is always someone in need that will take your spot. We are at about 70% capacity for the Christmas holiday, so if you need to board your favorite beast, reserve your spot ASAP! You can do that by calling us today at 301-776-6353 or making an online reservation here.

Since Mother Nature has decided to skip right to the colder weather, feel free to dress your pet for the weather! We try to keep our guests out as long as possible, but when it is just too cold and the sun's not shining, we bring the pups into our indoor kennel. Our kennel is heated to the perfect temperature to keep our guests warm and toasty. They are still with their groups while indoors and have ample space (5.5'x30') to play to their heart's content. Or if they prefer to take a snooze, each run has a large bed and a sheepskin rug to make it feel like they are right at home.

As Thanksgiving approaches, you may be wondering what feast leftovers you can and cannot give your fluffy friend. Fear not! We have compiled handy list for you. Enjoy the Season!

Sweating in September

Labor Day has passed and summer is officially over. School is back in session, community pools are closing, and the nights are crisp... at least they are supposed to be! It is a week into September, and it hasn't been below 80° yet! We are doing our best to have our guests out as much as possible, but in this heat and humidity, it's been difficult. We are hoping that this endless heat wave will fade and that the cool fall days that we all know and love will be here soon. We know the last thing you want to think about is how quickly the holiday season is approaching, but we do recommend that if you already know your plans, you reserve a spot for your furry friend!

And with the coming of Fall, the High Holy Days are approaching a bit faster than usual! We will be closed:

We appreciate and thank you in advance for your understanding!
And if you have ever wondered what happens when we are closed for these religious observances, you're not the only one! During these closings, everything is exactly the same except there are no customers! Our guests still get breakfast, belly rubs, treats, and dinner. They get to play outside with their friends, dig holes, and chase each other. The staff is still here supervising the pets, cleaning up and maintaining our facility, we just don't answer the phones or conduct business of any kind.

Did you know that September is National Service Dog Month? September is all about honoring the hardworking pups out there that serve countless people. We're talking all kinds of service: police dogs, fire dogs, search and rescue dogs, guide and hearing dogs, therapy dogs, seizure alert dogs etc. the list is endless! So, in honor of this month we would like to share some fun facts about service dogs with you!

- The most common breeds that serve as service dogs are Labrador Retrievers, Golden Retrievers and German Shepherds.
- Hospitals will frequently use therapy dogs to offer comfort to distressed patients which in turn reduce anxiety and blood pressure.
- Seizure alert dogs are trained to smell changes in their handlers' blood, as well as trained to notice warning signs of a possible seizure and know how to alert their handler.
- It takes about 18-24 months to fully train a service dog.

We hope you had a relaxing and enjoyable summer and that this whole 'sweating in September' thing ends soon!

The Sunday of Summer

August is almost here, which means summer is almost over. It has been hot and muggy (and just a bit rainy) like every Maryland summer, but this one seems to have blown by at an unusual speed. Before you know it, school will start up again, the leaves will change colors, and we will be longing for when the temperature was above 60°.

We hope that you are enjoying our new reservation system! We are still working out some kinks to make it the most user-friendly it can be. If you ever have questions about it, please give us a call or email us. You may have noticed a few emails from us regarding missing vaccines, upcoming appointments, birthday wishes etc., and we are still fine-tuning those automated emails. If you receive an email regarding missing or expired vaccines, that does not necessarily mean they are missing or expired. The system sends out the email a month before the vaccine expires, so that if you do have an upcoming appointment, you have enough time to get that vaccine updated and don't have to worry about it last minute. We have also been sending out birthday wishes to your lovely pets in which the email states your pup gets a free day of doggy daycare on us! No need to make a reservation for it, just show us the email when you drop off and we will apply the birthday coupon.

As summer winds down and you try to fit in one more getaway weekend, make sure to reserve a spot for your pet, as we are filling up fast for the last couple weekends of summer. And as they say, it's never too early to start thinking about the holidays. Plan your trips now and reserve your pet's spot as soon as possible for the upcoming holidays; we fill up faster than you'd think!

Speaking of holidays, the Fall Jewish High Holy Days are a little earlier than usual this year. We will be closed 9/10, 11, 19, 24 and 10/1. We will have limited hours of 9-11am and 5-7pm with no daycare on Sept 25th and Oct 2nd. As always, thank you for your patience during these observances. Our staff will be here taking care of all our guests just like every other day, but we will not answer the phones, email or check anyone in/out.

It is with a bit of sadness and pride that we are saying goodbye to Sarah, a longtime member of our team. You probably know Sarah for her stylish glasses, office phone on her hip, and a leash over her shoulders. Sarah had worked with us for almost 2 and half years. Our staff and guests are going to miss having her calm and positive attitude radiating on the grounds.

Our new hire, Nicole, is getting a feel for things around the yards and runs. Make sure to say hi to Nicole and her adorable puppy, Wally.

We hope you and your loved ones enjoy the last dog days of summer and enjoy every bit of sunshine you can!

Paradise for Pets

June 2018

Paradise for Pets is ready for all the fun and adventure that Summer will bring us this year! The vacation season has officially started for us and we are already filling up quick for Independence Day. Now would be a wonderful time to try out our new Reservation form. The new form is a little different but will make things a bit easier for everyone. New customers please pop your email address in the space provided and hit enter, you will be directed to fill out your information. For returning customers, Step

One is to enter your email address. If you have never given us an email address but have boarded before, try your first and last name @paradise4pets.com (example, JaneSmith@paradise4pets.com)

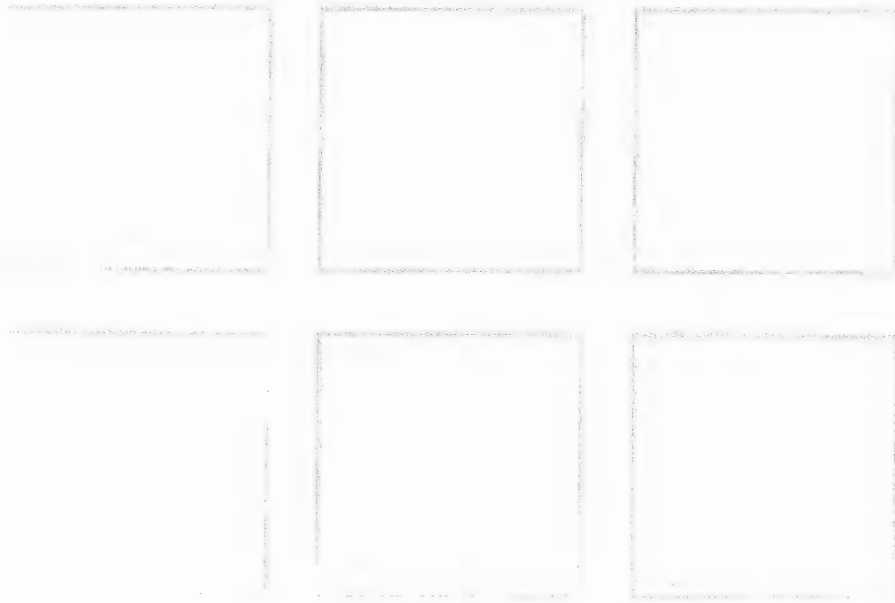

Step Two, Select your service. Either Daycare or Boarding (Grooming will be added later this summer). Choose the correct weight for your pet. Step Three, Check the appropriate box for the pet(s) that will be coming in. Step Four, Click on your preferred Drop-off date and then your Pick-up date. Step Five, Click on Book Dates. You will see a rough cost estimate for your visit and be able to edit the dates on the following page. Your request will appear in our software and we will approve it shortly!

Canine Influenza is rearing its head on the East Coast again this year. We are still not requiring the vaccine for either strain but would encourage every dog owner to speak with their veterinarian about preventative treatments. Here are two articles that show where the virus is popping up and what you can do about it, <https://www.dogflu.com/outbreak-map> and NYTimes .

With all the recent rain in the area we have contracted the Mosquito Squad to treat our yards for ticks and mosquitos monthly through October. Their treatment is safe for pets and humans, but it does require all our guests to stay inside while it is applied and drying. The entire process takes about 1 hour, if you have any questions or are interested in having your home treated please speak with Jonathan.

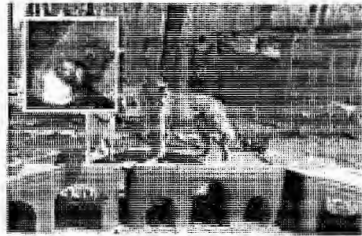

Summer boarding rate will start July 1st and be an additional $2/day. We look forward to seeing you and your pet soon!

Individual Diets

Meals are provided at the same frequency as they would get at home. We make every attempt to provide the same food as the pet is used to eating to reduce the incidence of gastrointestinal upset. Each pet's diet is individualized for that pet.

Pets requiring medications are provided this service at a minimal additional charge. We even welcome pets that require injections of insulin.

Personal Attention

A pet is going to feel stress when away from home no matter what the circumstances are. We do everything possible to make the stay at our facility as relaxing and pleasant as possible for every guest that has their lives entrusted to us.

We are unique in that any of our medical services such as exams, teeth cleaning, surgery and lab work can be provided while your pet is boarding.

Should your pet become ill during boarding, the doctor on duty will be notified and your pet will be examined. Medical treatment will be started to insure the health of your pet only if the life of the pet is in danger.

The Paradise Animal Center's Bed and Breakfast is honored that you have entrusted us with the responsibility of your pet's care. We have developed certain requirements which will provide you with the confidence that your pet will be in the best of hands while you are away.

Cage-Free Dog Boarding

There's No Place Like Home... And There's No Place Like Paradise Ranch For Your Dogs When You're Away!

Our Style of Dog Boarding is designed to provide your pet with a totally "enriched" boarding experience, which we accomplish by giving pets the things they need most: behavioral choices, exercise, socialization, and the absence of stress.

Dogs prefer real homes and outdoor play yards over kennels or warehouses. By their very nature, they require socialization with other dogs and with people, not solitary confinement.

Our experienced staff of trained dog handlers segregates the dogs according to size and temperament, and monitors each pack so that all dogs are in a stress-free environment. The dogs are rotated through several fun yards during the day (including our fantastic water park), and they sleep slumber-party-style in real homes with a bunch of new friends at night. And they are never locked up or left alone...that's right, there are no cages here. You can share their experience by checking in on any of our 11 webcams. We also offer private play times, swim times, massages, birthday parties, and a full line of dog training!

Check-In/Check-Out

We operate similar to a hotel. Check in is anytime during regular business hours on the day of arrival. Effective January 1, 2018, your pet will need to be picked up by Noon on the day of departure so that we may have time to prepare for incoming guests. If you cannot arrange for him/her to be picked up by then, we will slot them in our daycare program. You will be charged for ½ day of daycare up until 6pm. The current fee will be $12.50 per pet. In the event that your pet has not checked out and we need the room for another guest, we may remove your dog from his/her room and relocate them in a play area, etc. while they wait to be picked up. If your pet is not picked up by 6pm then the overnight rate will apply. Please note: You will need to make arrangements in advance if you will be having someone other than yourself picking up your pet. We will not release a pet to anyone else unless we have the proper authorization forms filled out

Keep in mind, you are always charged for Sundays...it is the same price whether you check out on Sunday or Monday by noon. Some see this as a 2-day weekend minimum stay.

Visitors

We know you and your family miss your dog while you are away on vacation, that's why we provide the webcams at no additional charge. This gives you piece of mind that your dog is OK while still allowing your dog to enjoy their vacation as well. We do not allow visitors once the dog is checked in. A lot of times this confuses the dogs because they think they get to go home. When the visitor leaves they become depressed. You are welcome to call us anytime during business hours and talk to us about how your dog is doing but please do not ask your family to come check on them.

Dawg Paradise Dog Handling Policy

At Dawg Paradise our goal is to create a safe and fun environment for your pet. We are not the type of daycare/boarding facilities where your dog is placed in a large group of dogs of all sizes and left (sometimes unattended) for the entire day. We do not feel that this is in the best interest of your dog.

We try to create a stress free environment where dogs who like other dogs are allowed supervised group play with like size and temperament dogs. For those dogs who are not socialized or do not play well with other dogs they are still afforded the same "individual" play time.

That being said it is nearly impossible to predict when your dog will have playtime.

We try to allow each group of dogs play time in half hour increments. Our playtime always depends on the number of group playing dogs and the number of individual dogs that we have here at any given time. We do our very best to make sure that they are out of their rooms 3 –4 times throughout the day, aside from their first time in the morning and last time at night.

Dawg Paradise offers webcam to our customers for their enjoyment. Dawg Paradise does not charge extra for use of the cameras. Dawg Paradise cannot guarantee that you will have a good view of your dog in their room. We will try to accommodate any special request for rooms, however based on availability it may not be possible to honor your request.

There is a $5 fee per additional dog and/or cat above 2 per visit, and $10 per pet over 2 during overnights.

*$2 more per visit outside of 92109, 92110 and 92122 zip codes.

EXTENDED STAY

$29 first hour ($15 any hour after)

HOLIDAY RATE

$7 holiday surcharge per visit, $10 per overnight on Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Eve & Christmas Day, New Year's Eve and Day, and 4th of July.

OVERNIGHT CARE

Some pets prefer more attention and do not like sleeping alone. For these occasions, we offer house-sitting in conjunction with pet sitting. Our overnight stay includes a potty break before bedtime, a morning feeding and a half an hour walk. Your pets will receive dedicated attention to make sure they have a good night's rest so they miss you a little less. We stick to your routines and your preferences. If your pet likes to sleep in bed with you, more than likely he/she will be able to cuddle in bed with our caregivers. We know we cannot replace you to your pet, but we will do everything possible to make your absence for them less noticeable. Our overnight stays are 12 hour shifts, and we try to accommodate your pet's routine. Midday walk is offered at a discounted rate (see vacation pet sitting fees).

WEEKNIGHT - $69

WEEKEND - FRIDAY/ SATURDAY - $79

SPECIAL NEEDS CARE

For no extra fee during the visit our professional staff will ensure your pet receives the extra care they need, including any medications that need to be administered or special feedings. If you need us to cook a meal for your pet, do not hesitate to ask during a meet-n-greet. Provide ingredients and instructions and we will please the pickiest of the eaters. At least 30 - 45 min visit will be required for special needs pets.

PET FOOD, SUPPLY DELIVERY, CONCIERGE AND TRANSPORTATION SERVICES

Need dog food, treats or other pet supplies? Just provide your caregiver with a list of what items we can deliver to your home so you don't have to make any extra trips to the pet store. Concierge services can cover just about anything you can think of - picking up your dry cleaning, taking your pet to their vet appointment or a groomer, filling your refrigerator before you come home from vacation or even mailing some packages at the post office. Your pets are our main concern, but anything we can do to help you while your pets are in our care is why we consider ourselves a true one-stop shop. Pricing is the same as during the extended stay. Errands should be kept within 5 mile radius, otherwise extra mileage fee may apply.

PRIVATE IN-HOME BOARDING AND DOGGIE DAY CARE

Some of our pet sitters are able to host your pets in their homes. Day care services are also available if your dog gets along with other dogs. Boarding is provided on a case-by-case basis, and you are able to do a meet-n-greet at pet sitter's home if you choose to. Availability is limited but if you book in advance we will more than likely be able to accommodate you. Day care is $45, boarding Sunday - Thursday, $69, and $79 on Fridays and Saturdays.

MIRA

Mira, the owner and founder of Paradise Pet Care, LOVES pets! She is originally from Ukraine, but has lived in the US since 1998 and now considers San Diego her home. She grew up with a wide variety of pets - dogs, cats, bunnies, hamsters and even chickens! After graduating from UCSD with a Masters in International Relations in 2009, she decided to stay in San Diego working for an alternative energy startup and Home Buddies pet service. Her love for animals inspired her to start her own pet care company. This is how Paradise Pet Care was born in 2014. She loves the opportunity to always be around animals and working outdoors. With so many beautiful beaches and parks in San Diego, this career is

SARAH

Sarah is a So Cal girl with the exception of spending a few years in Wisconsin. She grew up in Garner Valley, near Idylwild, on a large ranch. She had all kinds of animals including horses, dogs, cats, chickens, geese, guinea pigs, rabbits, pigeons, and more. She grew up riding and training horses and competed in rodeos doing barrel racing. She has always had multiple dogs of all different breeds. She has a background in the medical field and worked in a few internal medicine offices, and while living in Wisconsin she worked as a nurse in a fertility clinic. She enjoys working with both people and animals. She moved back to La Jolla from Wisconsin about three years ago and now has a whole new appreciation for the weather! She is back in college to earn her BS, so Paradise Pet Care seems to be a perfect fit with her schedule and Sandy has been raising dogs since moving from Massachusetts to La Jolla in 1999. In addition to loving and caring for pets, Sandy had an exciting career as a sportswriter at the Worcester Telegram & Gazette in Worcester, Massachusetts where he covered the Boston Bruins, the New England Patriots, Super Bowls, World Series and NCAA basketball Final Fours along with high schools and college games. Sandy has been able to continue his sportswriting career here in San Diego, where he is a freelance reporter for the Associated Press and MLB.com as well as working for the La Jolla Patch.com.

ALANA

Alana relocated from Seattle to San Diego in 2013 where she lives with her Mom and helps to take care of the family's adopted 17 year old chihuahua and 8 year old toy rat terrier, who are definitely Alana's fur babies! Alana has just over 20 years experience with pet sitting and dog walking, and as an avid outdoor lover, she truly loves being able to continue her position with us caring for pets in sunny Southern California. We are excited to have her on the team as she also runs a side solo business organizing and detailing homes, so if you're lucky to have her as your sitter you will not only find your pets well loved and happy, but your home will be shiny and bright too!

she is excited to have lots of great pets in her life as for the first time in her life she doesn't have one of her own living with her. She looks forward to meeting you and your pets, if she hasn't already!

LEILA

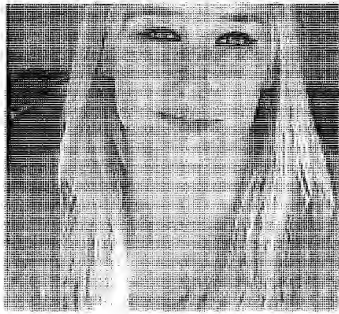

I became a dog sitter because I have always loved dogs my whole life and grew up with a few Labradors through my childhood. I am extremely passionate at what I do and gives me so much joy when the dogs are having fun with me. I am also very active and love outdoor activities such as running, hiking, playing soccer, and going to the beach. I currently do not have any pets so I will treat your pet like it's mine and take them everywhere with me! I helped my Dad puppy train Labrador's to become service dogs.

HEIDI

Heidi is a native San Diegan and loves living the healthy lifestyle of southern California. Though her main role at PPC is scheduling and being right-hand woman for Mira, she is slowly picking up more and more pet sitting jobs. Can't resist our furry charmers. When she's not scheduling or pet-sitting, Heidi enjoys staying physically active, teaching yoga, baking delicious goodies for friends, and planning her next trip abroad. You can often find her looking to pet and cuddle cats roaming on the street.

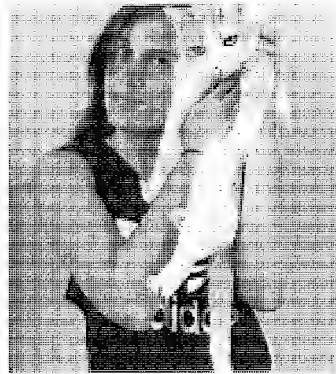

Christina, California native, is the busiest pet sitter on the team. Dog walking, cat sitting, bunny petting and even reading to birds became her full time job. She is a part-time student at Mesa College but her days are filled with many hours of exercising dogs and petting cats and bunnies. She is very passionate about all the animals she works with and your pets will quickly start considering her their best friend.

HOLLY

Holly is a Southern California girl at heart. She was born and raised in Glendale CA before moving to Albuquerque NM for a time. Holly relocated to San Diego, Mission Beach, a few years ago and cannot be happier to be back near the ocean, sunshine and pet loving community. Holly absolutely loves animals, and has owned a pet her entire life. Holly says, "I am so thrilled to have the opportunity to be around such wonderful dogs and cats each day while spending time outside in our wonderful Southern CA environment. I look forward to meeting you and your lovable pet."

STEPHANIE

Steph is originally from New Jersey, but no place can beat amazing San Diego weather so now she considers herself Californian. She is a cat owner, and in the spring of 2016 started her relationship with Paradise Pet Care as a client. She currently helps PPC with some admin tasks so you may see her name on the emails or receive a text from her. She is also one of the busiest pet sitters on the team, since she truly loves animals and can't get enough of them in her life. Taking care of all your fur children is something that she is great at and really looks forward to!

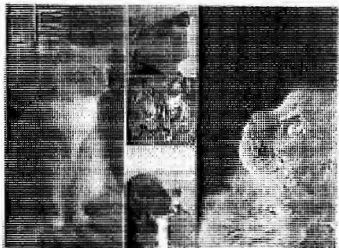

TARA

I'm Tara Brennan and I have grown up with dogs and cats all my life. I would play, walk, and take care of them. I have gone on over 100 walks with Wag before coming to Paradise Pet Care. In the past 8 years I have dog and cat sat for my sister and loved it. I live in South Mission Hills in San Diego and am thrilled to take care of your pets!

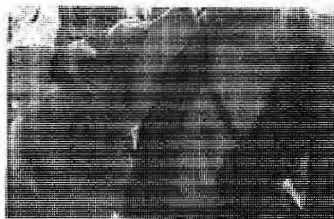

LAUREN

Lauren is originally from Arizona. She grew up with various pets and has a true passion for animals. Working full time for T-Mobile she realized that something she lacks the most in life is being around pets. She has a dog back home who she misses tremendously since she couldn't bring him with her to San Diego. Getting a job with Paradise Pet Care filled that void.

PAMELA

Pamela has a lifetime of animal experience, and love of the outdoors—all from summer's spent on her grandparent's farm. She married a San Diego native in 1990 and is the Design Coordinator, and Brand Manager @ La Jolla's JMA Industrial Design Office. She returned to pet sitting because it's an activity that inspires and enriches her life. She specializes in loving care, and spoiling your pet. Pamela has a keen eye, and takes beautiful photos of your pets. She transforms these photos into an exclusive illustration just for you. She is reliable, charming, and creates a memorable pet sitting experience. Discover the secrets of Pamela's magic. book Pamela@ Paradise now.

I was born and raised in beautiful Karpathian mountains in Western Ukraine

By the age of 25 I was done with university and military service and then I got a "travel virus" and started to circumnavigate the Earth. I spent many years in Ireland where my two beautiful daughters were born. On my way to Costa Rica from Canada I stopped in San Diego and wasn't able to leave. Currently I teach music at the local Ukrainian school and give private guitar lessons. I live yoga life style and through Paradise Pet Care I get to enjoy taking care of many precious animal-friends

 Cat Boarding Review

Amazing kennel staff - friendly, caring, and professional. Our cats are not always the most cooperative boarders, and one of them takes a number of medications, but the Paradise staff was understanding, patient, and loving with them. I couldn't have found a better place to board the cats!

I have two small shih-poops that we left for six nights at Paradise Pets. I went and toured different facilities (yes, tours) before I decided on Paradise, because under no circumstances did I want them in a cage. I picked Paradise because my pups could be placed in adjoining stalls and have the run of both so they could play together. I was extremely disappointed when I picked them up I was informed that Paradise had overbooked or something, and my pups ended up in the geriatric cages. They were together, but in a cage where they could not run or play. Not cool, Paradise Pets! I feel like it was a bait and switch!!! I will not be returning.

Specialties

Seeing your pet running around and playing pain-free is a joy for any pet owner. And that's what Paradise Canine Rehabilitation and Sports Medicine is all about. We provide rehabilitation therapy, pain management and sports therapy tailored to the exact needs of your pet. We are the area's top dog and cat physical therapy centers. Our patient cases include pets that need help with post-operative recovery, neurologic conditions, geriatric conditions, pain relief, arthritis, athletic performance goals and many more.

During your pet's initial consultation, you'll meet with our entire rehabilitation team. We'll detail the types of therapy we recommend for your pet -- both on-site and with at-home exercising -- and we'll develop a therapy program that works around your schedule.

History

Established in 2001.

Paradise Pet Therapy is one of the top animal therapy centers in Maryland. Since 2001, we've been providing therapy services to dogs and cats in the greater Baltimore County. We are a full-service therapy center, fully certified, offering professional physical recovery care for your pet. Our knowledgeable veterinarians and dedicated therapists provide the best care possible for our patients. This starts with state-of-the-art equipment and therapy programs tailored to your individual pet. It also includes listening carefully to you -- our partner in your pet's healthcare. We see all patients as a team for our initial consultation. This approach allows the pet owner to see and hear all that we do as well as to observe the specific exercises that will be done at home. Beyond that, the team approach allows all members of the therapy group to know the patient and provide consistent approach and care.

Our Mission

Caring for your pet is a great responsibility and privilege. Our goal is to make your pet's stay an enjoyable experience, so they will be happy to return for more fun and play. As pet owners ourselves, we understand the concerns you may feel about leaving your beloved member of the family in our hands. We want to assure you, we are serious about our responsibility and we will care for your pet as if he or she were our own. Our Modern, "State Of The Art," Low Stress Facility was designed and built for the SAFETY, COMFORT & EMOTIONAL WELL BEING of your pet above all else.

We pet parents know how our "special family members" enrich our lives. They are the children that never grow up. We know they dig holes, make messes, make noise, slime our guests and generally drop hair all over the place. But none of that matters. They know our moods, and they alter theirs to harmonize with them. We are continually amazed at their exceptional senses, their willingness to please, and of course, their total devotion.

When we leave them, even for a short time, we want to know they have the best possible care. A daily visit by a friend or "pet sitter" cannot possibly fill this void. We have studied kennel and daycare management, pet grooming, pet nutrition, first aid and CPR. We have certified Pet Care Technicians trained specifically to recognize the requirements and needs of each of our guests.

Boarding

Animal Paradise is NOT a boarding facility, and that alone is a reason why we are so special! Receive top-notch, professional care, while never leaving a home atmosphere! Moving any animal is stressful, but rest assured, your fur babies will be right at home at Animal Paradise. Love, individual attention, exercise and overall happiness are our top priorities! Leave with a piece of mind, knowing that your animals are receiving the best care possible, in a controlled and safe environment. We offer a smoke-free home environment with ample space, a fenced in yard for around-the-clock playtime, specialized pet turf for a clean and sanitary outdoor space, one-on-one attention, and unconditional love!

We offer both short-term and long-term boarding. Long-term boarding considered any stay longer than 15 days. All long-term boarding clients will receive 10% off their stay.

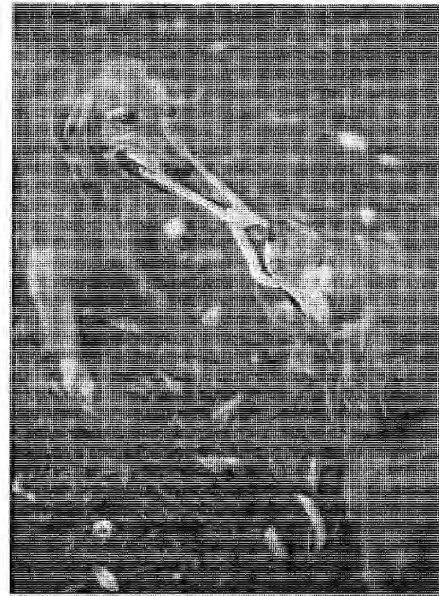

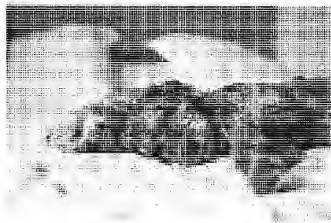

Boarding is offered for dogs, and caged animals, such as birds, rabbits, exotic animals, and pocket sized critters.

We accept all dogs, no age or breed restrictions, fixed and intact! We do not accept cats, or female dogs in heat.

An initial meet & greet is required prior to accepting any new clients into our home. This ensures a perfect fit for all involved, and gives you a piece of mind that your animals are receiving safe and outstanding care!
