DAYTON HUDSON CORPORATION,

Opposition No. 100,964

Opposer,

v.

REQUEST ON CONSENT
FOR EXTENSION OF
SUSPENSION PERIOD

ROBERT C. ATKINS,

Applicant.

---

It is respectfully requested that the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board extend the suspension period currently in place for fifteen (15) days to and including May 20, 2002. Opposer Target Corporation, formerly known as Dayton Hudson Corporation, consents to this extension.

The purpose of the extension is to allow the parties to continue discussions toward an applicable resolution of the opposition. Meaningful settlement dialogue is ongoing and the parties are discussing settlement language. We are hopeful that the matter will be settled shortly.

This Request On Consent is being filed in triplicate and is being served on Opposer's counsel of record, Faegre & Benson LLP, Attn: James R. Steffen, Esq.

Re: Dayton Hudson Corporation v. Robert C. Atkins
Opposition No. 100,964

Dear Ms. Johnson:

The Applicant respectfully requests a fifteen (15) day extension of the suspension period until May 20, 2002. As we indicated to you previously, meaningful settlement dialogue is ongoing and the parties are discussing settlement language. We are hopeful that the matter will be settled shortly. Opposer's counsel, Faegre & Benson LLP (by James R. Steffen, Esq.) consented to the extension.

Submitted herewith is the Request On Consent For Extension Of Suspension Period.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,
