Extraordinary circumstances exist for the request for additional time to oppose. Applicant's counsel consented to this extension. Since the last request, applicant has forwarded additional comments on a proposed settlement agreement and exhibits, which would cover this and 29 other applications. Potential opposer has reviewed applicant's comments, and potential opposer and applicant held a telephone conference to discuss the remaining unresolved issues with respect to the settlement agreement. Additionally, potential opposer and applicant discussed a timeline for resolution of this matter, and discussed the possibility of scheduling an additional telephone conference. The additional time is requested to allow potential opposer to further consider and respond to applicant's comments, and for the parties to schedule an additional telephone conference, if necessary.

The mark was published in the Official Gazette of May 20, 1997.

Dated: January 16, 2003
