MOTION FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME TO RESPOND TO APPLICANT'S SUMMARY JUDGMENT MOTION

Opposers respectfully request that the deadline set by the Board in its Order of October 1, 2001 and extended by means of the motion on consent filed by Opposers on October 12, 2001, for the Opposers to respond to the Applicant's summary judgment motion be reset by twenty one (21) days. The parties have been engaging in settlement discussions and the Opposers would like time to receive the Applicant's comments regarding their most recent settlement proposal before responding to the Applicant's summary judgment motion. Opposers' counsel has discussed and forwarded a new proposal and draft agreement to Applicant's counsel and has attempted to contact Applicant's counsel in order to obtain their comments. Opposers' counsel Jess Collen attempted to contact both Mr. Harris Wolin and Mr. Aaron B. Karas at the offices of Rosenman and Colin LLP on Wednesday November 28, 2001, but was informed that Mr. Wolin was currently in Japan and that Mr. Karas was out of the office. Opposers' counsel left voice mail messages for each of them and for their assistant, a Ms. Linda Catreer. Ms. Catreer contacted Opposers' counsel on November 29, 2001 in response to the voice mail message left for her. Ms. Catreer stated that she had emailed both attorneys in response to Mr. Collen's inquiries, but had not received any reply from Mr. Wolin or Mr. Karas.

The date, as reset, will require Opposers to file a brief in opposition to Applicant's summary judgment motion by December 22, 2001.

Respectfully submitted for Opposers,
Yves Saint Laurent Fashion B.V.,
Yves Saint Laurent Couture, and
Yves Saint Laurent International B.V.
