MOTION ON CONSENT TO EXTEND TIME IN WHICH TO SERVE SIGNED DISCOVERY RESPONSES

Opposers respectfully request that the time period set by the Board in its previous Order in which the Opposers are to serve a signed copy of their discovery responses be extended by twenty-one (21) days, to and including September 4, 2003. No other extensions of the discovery or trial calendar are being requested. Opposers' counsel received consent for this motion from Applicant's attorney, Michael Sarney, Esq., during a telephone conversation with him on August 14, 2003.

Opposers' need the requested time due to the fact that their fashion house is closed during the month of August in Paris and that the further time is required for proper personnel to review and sign the responses. Furthermore, the parties have been discussing settlement for some time and would like further time in which to consider the proposals of each party and to continue to negotiate a resolution of this matter. For these reasons, Opposers ask respectfully that the requested extension be granted.

09/12/2003 11:15 AM

This request is filed in triplicate.

Respectfully submitted for Opposers,
Yves Saint Laurent Fashion B.V.,
Yves Saint Laurent Couture, and
Yves Saint Laurent International B.V.
