Dear Ms. Snowden:

We have been copied on Applicant's counsel's July 26th letter to you further requesting that the Board reschedule the trial hearing, this time from October 16th to a date after October 22nd. We were not consulted in advance of the request. Although we do not object to this further rescheduling request, in order to avoid further delays in this matter, and in the absence of compelling circumstances, we will object to any further such requests.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Respectfully yours,
