Opposition No. 150,562

WAGAMAMA LIMITED

v.

PERSPECTIVES

Amy King, Paralegal Specialist

It is noted by the Board that time for Wagamama Limited (as plaintiff in Opposition No. 150,562) to file a brief on the case has expired, and no brief has been filed by either party.¹

Trademark Rule 2.128(a)(3) provides that when a party in the position of plaintiff fails to file a main brief, an order may be issued allowing plaintiff until a set time, not less than fifteen days, in which to show cause why the Board should not treat such failure as a concession of the case. The rule further provides that if plaintiff fails to file a response to the order, or files a response indicating that it has lost interest in the case, judgment may be entered against plaintiff.

¹In an order dated February 25, 2003, the Board dismissed the previously consolidated proceeding, Cancellation No. 40319, with prejudice.

In view of the above, the Wagamama Limited is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to show cause why the Board should not treat its failure to file a brief as a concession of the case, failing which a judgment dismissing the opposition with prejudice will be entered against it.
