Opposition No. 91153062

Compaq Trademark B.V.

v.

INFOPAQ APS

On March 9, 2005, the parties filed applicant's proposed amendment to its application Serial No. 75721143, with opposer's consent, and opposer's withdrawal with prejudice of the opposition, contingent upon entry of the amendment.

By the proposed amendment applicant seeks to change the identification of services from "electronic news clipping service, namely, providing online clippings and summaries from newspapers magazines, and online global computer information networks; computer services, namely, development of databases for others" to "electronic news clipping service, namely, providing online clippings and summaries from newspapers magazines, and online global computer information networks; computer services, namely, development of news clipping databases for others."

Inasmuch as the amendment is clearly limiting in nature as required by Trademark Rule 2.71(b), and because opposer consents thereto, it is approved and entered. See Trademark Rule 2.133(a).

The contingency in opposer's withdrawal having now been met, the opposition is dismissed with prejudice.
