Opposition No. 91153464

State Street Corporation

v.

Viewtrade Securities

Jyll S. Taylor, Attorney:

On November 15, 2002, the order instituting this proceeding was forwarded to applicants at its address of record, i.e., 1 World Trade Center, Ste 4627, New York, NY 10048-4699, but was subsequently returned as undeliverable by the United States Postal Service. Since then, Board personnel has made reasonable, albeit unsuccessful, efforts to locate applicants.¹

If an applicant in an opposition is not represented by an attorney or other authorized representative, and the applicant's copies of the notice of opposition and notification letter are returned to the Board as undeliverable, the Board will make all reasonable efforts to locate the applicant. However, it is the responsibility of an applicant representing itself to keep the PTO informed of its current address. If such applicant fails to do so, and the Board is unable to locate the applicant, the Board will continue to send correspondence relating to the opposition to applicant's last-known address, and when the applicant fails to file an answer to the notice of opposition, the opposition may be decided as in case of default. TBMP section 315.02.

Having said that, answer was due in this case on September 5, 2000. Inasmuch as it appears that no answer has been filed, nor has applicant filed a motion to extend its time to answer, notice of default is hereby entered against applicant under Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(a).

Applicant is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to show cause why judgment by default should not be entered against it in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(b).
