Rochelle Ricks, Paralegal Specialist:

Opposer's consented motion filed October 18, 2004 to further suspend proceedings is noted and granted as modified below.

Accordingly, proceedings herein remain suspended until July 14, 2005 to permit the parties time to negotiate settlement, subject to the right of either party to request resumption at any time. See Trademark Rule 2.117(c).

In the event that there is no word from either party concerning the progress of their negotiations within the time frame stated above, the Board will issue an order resuming proceedings and resetting the time for opposer's response brief on applicant's motion to strike.

If, during the suspension period, either of the parties or their attorneys should have a change of address, the Board should be so informed.
