Mailed: March 23, 2005

Opposition No. 91155221

CHEVRON U.S.A. INC

v.

NISSAN CHEMICAL INDUSTRIES,
LTD.

Vionette Baez, Paralegal

Now before the Board are applicant's stipulated requests for extension of time to file an answer, filed November 26, 2004, and January 18, 2005.

On October 26, 2004,<sup>1</sup> the Board issued an order suspending proceedings in this matter for six months in view of the parties' settlement negotiations. Accordingly, applicant's motions are DENIED as moot. During the course of the suspension, the parties should not file any papers (with the exception of changes of address), unless a resumption of proceedings is desired. Filing of such papers is unnecessary, and is a waste of the resources of both the Board and the parties.

<sup>1</sup> The Board notes that the October 26, 2004 order was returned by the US Postal Service as undeliverable. In view thereof, a copy of this order is forwarded herewith to counsel for applicant.
