Reba McEntire, a U.S. citizen, as trustee of The Smith Trust, having a place of business at 40 Music Square West, Nashville, Tennessee 37203 (hereinafter called "Opposer"), believes that she will be damaged by registration of the trademark REBA for the goods identified in Application Serial No. 75/726,416 filed by Takasago International Corporation U.S.A., a New York corporation, having a business address of 11 Volvo Drive, Rockleigh, NJ 07647 (hereinafter called "Applicant").

As grounds of Opposition, Opposer alleges as follows.

I. Likelihood of Confusion

- 1. The application at issue was filed on September 8, 1995, under § 1(b) of the Lanham Act, alleging an intent to use and seeking registration on the Principal Register for the mark REBA as a trademark in International Class 3 for "perfume" (hereinafter referred to as "Applicant's Goods").
- 2. Opposer is a well-known entertainer and multi-platinum recording artist who stars in the television show bearing her name and who sells musical and video recordings, apparel, and a variety of merchandise under the REBA trademark (hereinafter referred to as "Opposer's Goods and Services"). Since as early as 1974, Opposer has used and continues to use the name Reba McEntire as a performance name; and since as early as 1978, Opposer has also used and is using the trademarks REBA and REBA MCENTIRE in connection with the sale of Opposer's Goods and Services.
- 3. Opposer owns a number of federal registrations for the marks REBA and REBA MCENTIRE, including the following:
- a) Registration number 2,166,737 for the mark REBA for "belt buckle made of precious metal; watches; necklace charms."
- b) Registration number 1,981,268 for the mark REBA for "sunglasses; magnets; pre-recorded videotapes, featuring music, concert, and entertainment."

- c) Registration number 2,163,066 for the mark REBA for "t-shirts; sweatshirts; shorts; sweatpants; nightshirts; sweaters; satin jackets; denim jackets; baseball caps; bathrobes; leather jackets; rain ponchos; socks."
- d) Registration number 2,090,414 for the mark REBA for "address book; tour book; decals; bumperstickers; fountain pens; posters; photographs; song books."
- e) Registration number 1,979,887 for the mark REBA for "automatic fold-up umbrella; tote bags; fanny pack."
- f) Registration number 1,966,072 for the mark REBA for "women's apparel; namely, pants, dresses, skirts, blouses, and scarves."
- g) Registration number 2,020,433 for the mark REBA for "ceramic mugs; acrylic beverage tumblers; sports bottles sold empty."
- h) Registration number 1,981,269 for the mark REBA for "beach towel; afghan."
- i) Registration number 2,571,687 for the mark REBA MCENTIRE for "clothing, namely, T-shirts, sweat shirts, shorts, sweat pants, night shirts, sweaters, satin jackets, denim jackets, bathrobes, leather jackets, rain ponchos, socks; baseball caps; socks; footwear; headwear."
- j) Registration number 2,082,158 for the mark REBA MCENTIRE for "series of musical sound recordings." (All of the above-described marks are hereinafter referred to as the "REBA Marks.")
- 4. Opposer's priority is indisputable. Opposer has used her REBA Marks since as early as 1978, while Applicant has not alleged any use of its mark. Since the first use of Opposer's REBA Marks, Opposer has continuously marketed, and is presently marketing, Opposer's Goods and Services in the United States and throughout the world under the REBA Marks. Opposer's REBA Marks are displayed on or in connection with Opposer's Goods and Services and in advertisements and promotional materials of various types disseminated in the United States and throughout the world in conjunction with the advertising, offering for sale, and selling of Opposer's Goods and Services.

- United States and throughout the world. As of 2001, Opposer had distributed over 50 million records under the REBA Marks, making her the most successful female artist in the country music genre. As a result of substantial advertising, promotion, sale, and distribution thereof, the Opposer's Goods and Services have acquired substantial fame, and Opposer has developed exceedingly valuable goodwill with respect to the REBA Marks. Opposer is currently the star of the television show Reba, which debuted in 2001. Opposer also starred in the Broadway production of Annie Get Your Gun in 2001, garnering praise in publications including The New York Times. Opposer has appeared in several motion pictures, including Tremors and One Night at McCool's. Opposer has written two books, My Story and Country from a Country Quilt, which together have sold over one million copies. My Story also appeared on the New York Times Bestseller List for several weeks.
- 6. The mark proposed for registration by Applicant, REBA, is identical to or fully incorporated into Opposer's REBA Marks, and is to be applied to goods which are closely related to those offered by Opposer such that Applicant's mark is likely to be confused with Opposer's REBA Marks. Because Applicant's mark is identical to or fully incorporated into Opposer's REBA Marks, it is likely to cause confusion and lead to misunderstanding as to the origin of Applicant's Goods and Services bearing the REBA mark.
- 7. If Applicant were granted registration of the application herein opposed, the similarity between Applicant's REBA mark and Opposer's REBA Marks would cause confusion in the marketplace resulting in damage and injury to Opposer. Consumers familiar with Opposer's REBA Marks may purchase Applicant's REBA product mistakenly believing it to be sold or endorsed by Opposer, or otherwise affiliated with Opposer. Furthermore, any faults or objections found with Applicant's Goods would reflect poorly upon and injure the reputation that Opposer has established for its Goods and Services under the REBA Marks.

8. It is Opposer's belief that Applicant, with the deliberate and willful intent of (a) causing public confusion and mistake, and (b) causing a false and incorrect suggestion and association of Applicant and Applicant's Goods with Opposer and Opposer's Goods and Services, chose the mark REBA for the express purpose of unfairly simulating, copying, and resembling Opposer's REBA Marks.

II. Dilution

- 9. As alleged above, Opposer has used her REBA Marks in commerce since at least as early as 1978 in connection with Opposer's Goods and Services. Opposer's REBA Marks have since become famous trademarks with strong and distinctive character qualifying for protection under Section 13 (15 U.S.C. § 1063 as amended) and Section 43(c) (15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)) of the Lanham Act.
- 10. Applicant's application was filed September 8, 1995, and is therefore subject to the provisions of Section 13 as amended and Section 43(c) of the Lanham Act.
- Applicant's use and registration of the mark that is the subject of the application will lessen the capacity of Opposer's famous and distinctive REBA Marks to distinguish Opposer's Goods and Services from those of others, all to the damage of Opposer.

Wherefore, Opposer prays that this Opposition be sustained and that registration for the mark REBA covered by Application Serial No. 74/726,416 in International Class 3 be denied.

Opposer hereby appoints the firm Steinhart & Falconer LLP, 333 Market Street, Suite 3200, San Francisco, California 91405, to prosecute this Opposition, and to transact all business in the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office in connection therewith. All future communications in this Opposition should be directed to Opposer's attorneys identified above, to the attention of Katherine A. Keating or Kimberly G. Russell, telephone number (415) 777-3999.

Opposer hereby files this Notice of Opposition in triplicate. Please charge the statutory filing fee of $300.00 and any additional fees to the Deposit Account of Steinhart &

Falconer LLP, No. 19-4215 (Our File No.: 81140-77). Please date-stamp and return the enclosed return receipt postcard indicating receipt and filing of this Notice of Opposition.

Respectfully submitted,

TTAB NOTICE CONCERNING CORRESPONDENCE ADDRESS (TRADEMARK RULE 2.18)

The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board will mail correspondence to only one address for each party.

If a party is located in the U.S., correspondence will be sent to the party's own address, unless (1) papers filed with the Board are filed by a party's attorney, (2) a written power of attorney is filed, (3) a written authorization of some other person entitled to be recognized is filed, or (4) the party requests in writing that correspondence be sent to another address. In these situations, correspondence will be sent, respectively, to (1) the attorney filing papers, (2) the attorney named in the power of attorney, (3) the other person designated in the written authorization, or (4) the other address specified by the party.

When one attorney or other authorized representative makes an appearance on behalf of a party, his address is noted on the proceeding file as the correspondence address. If a second attorney or other authorized representative makes an appearance on behalf of the party, and requests that correspondence be directed to him, the correspondence address on the proceeding file will be changed, and future correspondence will be sent to the second attorney or other authorized representative, rather than to the first one. If the second attorney or other authorized representative does not request that correspondence be sent to him, the Board will continue to send correspondence to the first attorney or authorized representative.

If a power of attorney from a party to one attorney has been filed, and thereafter another attorney or authorized representative makes an appearance on behalf of the party and asks that correspondence be sent to him, the second attorney or authorized representative will be required to submit authorization, from the party or from the first attorney, for the requested change in correspondence address.

If a power of attorney from a party to one attorney has been filed, and thereafter a power of attorney from the party to another attorney is filed, the second power of attorney will be construed as a written request to change the correspondence address from the first attorney to the second one, even if there is no revocation of the first power, unless the party or the first attorney directs otherwise. Likewise, if an attorney makes an appearance on behalf of a party, and thereafter the party files a written power of attorney to another attorney, the Board will send subsequent correspondence to the appointed attorney.

If a power of attorney from a party to one attorney has been filed, and thereafter that attorney files an "associated power of attorney" to another attorney, the correspondence address will remain unchanged, and the Board will continue to send correspondence to the first attorney, unless the first attorney or the party directs otherwise.

In the case of a party whose application is the subject of a Board proceeding, any appearance or power of attorney (or designation of other authorized representative) of record in the application file at the time of the commencement of the Board proceeding is considered to be effective for purposes of the proceeding, and correspondence will be sent initially to that address. Thereafter, the correspondence address may be changed as described in Trademark Rule 2.18.

In the case of a party whose registration is the subject of a Board proceeding, any representative which may be of record in the registration file at the time of the commencement of the Board proceeding is not considered to be effective for purposes of the Board proceeding. Rather, correspondence is sent to the registrant itself unless and until another correspondence address is established in the manner described in Trademark Rule 2.18.

NOTICE CONCERNING ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (ADR)

The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board encourages you to consider alternative dispute resolution as a means of settling the issues raised in this opposition or cancellation proceeding. Although more than 95% of Board proceedings are decided prior to trial (by settlement or by entry of pre-trial judgment), alternative dispute resolution techniques might produce an earlier, mutually agreeable resolution of your dispute or might, at least, narrow the scope of discovery or the issues for trial. In either case, alternative dispute resolution might save you time and money.

Many non-profit organizations, both inside and outside the intellectual property field, offer alternative dispute resolution services. Listed below are the names and addresses of organizations that have indicated that they can make arrangements for alternative dispute resolution. The listings are given for your convenience; the Board does not sponsor nor endorse any particular organization's alternative dispute resolution services.

Finally, if the parties consider using alternative dispute resolution in this proceeding, the Board would like to know; and if the parties actually engage in alternative dispute resolution, the Board would be interested to learn what mechanism (e.g., arbitration, mediation, etc.) was used and with what general result. Such a statement from the parties is not required but would be helpful to the Board in assessing the value of alternative dispute resolution in Trademark Trial and Appeal Board proceedings.
