Angela Campbell, Paralegal Specialist:

Answer was due on August 9, 2004. A review of the record shows that an answer has not been filed.

This case now comes up for consideration of opposer's motion, filed August 18, 2004, for default judgment against applicant for failure to file an answer. The motion is uncontested.¹

Inasmuch as applicant failed to file an answer in this case, and failed to respond to opposer's motion in any manner, the motion for default judgment is granted. See Trademark Rule 2.127(a). Accordingly, judgment is hereby entered against applicant, the notice of opposition is sustained, and registration to applicant is refused. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 55 and Trademark Rule 2.127(a).
