Andrew P. Baxley, Interlocutory Attorney:

Fender Musical Instruments Corporation ("applicant") seeks to register the following miscellaneous designs for
"guitar bodies" in International Class 15:

² Application Serial No. 76516126, filed April 25, 2003, based on use in commerce under Trademark Act Section 1(a), 15 U.S.C. Section 1051(a), alleging 1954 as the date of first use and date

The thirteen above-captioned proceedings, in which there are eleven different opposers, have been instituted against one or more of applicant's involved applications.⁴

In view of the substantial number of oppositions based on essentially similar claims that have been brought against the involved applications,⁵ the Board, flowing from its inherent authority to control the scheduling of cases on its docket, finds that any and all issues relating to the pleadings in these proceedings and any proceedings based on essentially similar claims that may yet be commenced against the involved applications should be resolved before the

of first use in commerce. The application includes a claim of acquired distinctiveness under Trademark Act Section 2(f), 15 U.S.C. Section 1052(f), and a statement that "[t]he mark consists of a fancifully shaped configuration of the body portion of a guitar."

proceedings move any further forward. Accordingly, the above-captioned proceedings are hereby suspended, except for purposes of filing answers and motions related to the pleadings in these proceedings and any proceedings yet to be instituted against the involved applications.

Once answers are filed and issues related to the pleadings are resolved in all of the proceedings at issue, the Board will resume proceedings, commencing with discovery, and consider questions of consolidation and/or continued suspension of the proceedings. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 42(a); Trademark Rule 2.117(a); and TBMP Sections 510.02(a) and 511.
