Sara Lee Global Finance, L.L.C

v.

Sport Supply Group, Inc.

Jyll S. Taylor, Attorney:

On March 13, 2006, the Board granted applicant's fourth consented motion to extend the discovery and testimony periods to allow the parties time to discuss settlement.¹ Notably the parties have been in settlement discussions since July of 2005. To facilitate those discussions, and in accordance with Board practice, the March 13 2006 order is hereby modified such that proceedings herein are suspended until six months from the mailing date of this action, subject to the right of either party to request resumption at any time. See Trademark Rule 2.117(c).

In the event that there is no word from either party concerning the progress of their negotiations within the next six months, the Board will issue an order resuming proceedings and taking appropriate action on any outstanding matters.

¹ Applicant's motion, filed July 18, 2006, to extend the discovery and testimony periods, with opposer's consent, is hereby granted. See Trademark Rule 2.127(a).

If, during the suspension period, either of the parties or their attorneys should have a change of address, the Board should be so informed.
