Opposition No. 91162873

CARTIER INTERNATIONAL B.V.

v.

Trinity Fellowship Church

On August 9, 2005, the parties filed applicant's proposed amendment to its application Serial No. 76507680, with opposer's consent, and opposer's withdrawal without prejudice of the opposition, contingent upon entry of the amendment.

By the proposed amendment applicant seeks to change the identification of goods in International class 16,

from "magazines, books, pamphlets, brochures, bulletins, newsletters, reports, study guides, workbooks, catalogs, leaflets, flyers and printed materials, all in the field of Christianity, religion, theology, spirituality, ethics, culture and social issues; Bibles, pencils, note cards, note pads, stationery, paper pads, envelopes, paper banners; paper signs; song books; address books; posters, greeting cards, occasion cards, paper labels, post cards; calendars; note books; anniversary books; appointment books; autograph books; baby books; children's books; children's activity books; date books; engagement books; hymn books; prayer books; telephone number books; wedding books; wire bound books; and Christmas cards"

to the following:

"magazines, books, pamphlets, brochures, bulletins, newsletters, reports, study guides, workbooks, catalogs, leaflets, flyers and printed materials, all in the field of Christianity, religion, theology, spirituality, ethics, culture and social issues; Bibles, note cards, note pads, paper pads, envelopes, paper banners; paper signs, song books; posters; paper labels; post cards; autograph books; baby books children's books; children's activity books; date books; engagement books; hymn books; prayer books; wedding books; and wire bound books."

Inasmuch as the amendment is clearly limiting in nature as required by Trademark Rule 2.71(b), and because opposer consents thereto, it is approved and entered. See Trademark Rule 2.133(a).

The contingency in opposer's withdrawal having now been met, the opposition is dismissed without prejudice.
