Opposition No. 91163196

BAYER HEALTH CARE LLC

v.

AMAXA GMBH

Millicent Canady, Paralegal Specialist

Applicant's consented motion (filed March 10, 2005) to extend the time for filing its answer to the notice of opposition is granted. Applicant's answer is due May 10, 2005.

The parties have stipulated to consecutive extensions of time which bring the due date for applicant's answer within 40 days of the close of the discovery period, previously set by the Board as June 19, 2005. The parties are warned that a request to extend the time for answer does not automatically result in an extension to discovery and trial dates. The Board will not grant any extension that would move the time for answer beyond the close of the discovery period. If applicant requires further extensions of time to answer, the parties may request an extension of the discovery period in addition to an extension of time to answer.¹

The close of discovery and trial dates remain as set in the Board's December 1, 2004 order.

¹ Applicant is advised that any consented motion to extend discovery and trial dates should be submitted in the form used in a trial order, specifying the precise closing date for each rescheduled period. See 37 C.F.R. § 2.121(d).
