STIPULATED MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF DISCOVERY PERIOD

The parties to this action, Yoshida & Company, Ltd. (“Yoshida”) and Porter International Co., Ltd. (“Porter International”) hereby jointly move for a nine-month extension to the discovery period currently scheduled to close on Friday, June 16, 2006, and a corresponding extension to all subsequent testimony periods.

The parties recently exchanged written discovery responses and document productions. Yoshida, the Petitioner and Opposer in the consolidated actions, is a Japanese entity while Porter International, the Registrant and Applicant in the consolidated actions, is a Taiwanese entity. As both parties to the consolidated actions are foreign entities having a considerable number of non-English language documents, a significant number of the exchanged documents require translation. The parties need additional time to obtain the translations and conduct further discovery.

Due to the time needed to obtain such translations and complete further discovery, the parties believe good cause has been shown to support the requested extension of the discovery period for the consolidated actions. This motion is not for the purpose of mere delay, but is necessary for the good cause and circumstances indicated above.

Accordingly, the parties jointly request that the discovery and testimony periods be rescheduled as follows:

Discovery period to close:	March 16, 2007
Testimony period for party in position of plaintiff to close:	June 14, 2007
30-day testimony period for party in position of defendant to close:	August 13, 2007
15-day rebuttal testimony period for plaintiff to close:	September 28, 2007

In view thereof, both parties to the above-consolidated actions respectfully request that the motion for a nine-month extension of the discovery and testimony periods be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Yoshida & Company, Ltd.
