Opposition No. 91164236

S-T-N Holdings, Inc.

v.

Dietrich Industries, Inc.

Andrew P. Baxley, Interlocutory Attorney:

Opposer's motion (filed March 22, 2007) to suspend for settlement negotiations is granted. Proceedings herein are suspended until May 21, 2007, subject to either party's right to request resumption at any time.

If no word is received from either party by May 21, 2007, proceedings herein will resume automatically without further action by the Board on May 22, 2007. The parties will be allowed until June 21, 2007 to serve responses to any outstanding written discovery requests. Discovery and testimony periods will be reset in accordance with the schedule set forth in opposer's motion.

The Board notes that the parties have filed and been granted twelve motions to suspend for settlement negotiations. Any further motions or stipulations to suspend or extend dates based on the parties' settlement negotiations must include a detailed recitation of facts constituting good cause for the suspension or extension sought. Such recitation should set forth a list of issues that have been resolved and that remain to be resolved and a firm timetable for resolution of the remaining issues. Failure to include such a recitation may result denial of the suspension or extension sought.
