Natural Organics, Inc.

v.

KETO, L.L.C.

Cheryl S. Goodman, Interlocutory Attorney:

On June 5, 2005, the Board issued a notice of default for failure of applicant to file an answer. On June 13, 2005, proceedings were suspended by Board order pending disposition of the civil action between the parties, and on June 14, 2005, applicant filed its motion to set aside default.

In support of its motion to set aside default, applicant advises that the parties are involved in 22 related opposition proceedings and that the parties have stipulated to stay proceedings in all matters pending disposition of the civil action; that applicant anticipated that a stay would be issued in this proceeding as had occurred in the other proceedings; and that applicant's failure to answer was unintentional.

Inasmuch as good cause has been shown, entry of default is set aside. Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(c).

Proceedings remain suspended pending disposition of the civil action between the parties as set forth in the Board's order dated June 13, 2005.
