Eric McWilliams, Supervisory Paralegal:

On July 14, 2007, the Board issued an order to show cause, allowing opposer thirty days to inform the Board why it should not treat its failure to file a brief as a concession in this case. On July 23, 2007, the notice was returned undeliverable by the U.S. Postal Service.

It is the responsibility of the party that has brought forth an action to keep the Board updated on any change of its address. Failure to do so indicates that the party has lost interest in pursuing the opposition proceeding.

In view thereof, opposer is allowed until TWENTY (20) days from the mailing date of this order to inform the Board of its correct address so that all records may be updated accordingly and respond to the order to show cause.¹ If
