v.

DaySpring Cards, Inc.

Angela Lykos, Interlocutory Attorney

On June 11, 2006, the Board granted applicant's motion for more definite statement and allowed opposer time to submit an amended pleading.

On July 6, 2006 and July 11, 2006, opposer submitted two amended pleadings. While the pleadings do appear to state a claim, neither conforms to the specifications regarding the format of pleadings. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 10(a) and TBMP Section 309 (2d ed. rev. 2004).

Accordingly, opposer is allowed until twenty (20) days from the mailing date of this order to submit a single notice of opposition which conforms to the requirements explained in TBMP Section 309, with al averments made in numbered paragraphs, failing which the opposition will be dismissed. proceedings remain suspended.
