Opposer,

v.

NOTICE OF WITHDRAWAL OF MOTION TO QUASH AND FOR A PROTECTIVE ORDER

LOVELAND PRODUCTS, INC.,

Applicant.

Loveland Products, Inc. (“Loveland”), hereby withdraws its Motion to Quash Deposition and for a Protective Order (“Motion”), and respectfully requests that the Board vacate the telephonic hearing on Lovelands’ Motion, currently scheduled for April 25, 2006. In support thereof, Loveland states as follows:

1. On April 20, 2006, Loveland filed its Motion to Quash Deposition and for a Protective Order seeking to (1) quash Opposer’s Notice of Deposition of the President of Loveland, to occur on April 26, 2006; and (2) enter a protective order pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c)(1) prohibiting Opposer from noticing further depositions of Loveland’s executive officers without first exhausting less intrusive discovery methods.

2. On April 21, 2006, representatives for the parties met and conferred by telephone regarding the subject matter of Lovland’s Motion. During that conference, Opposer agreed to withdraw its Notice of Deposition of Loveland’s President. The parties also agreed that, within the next thirty days, they would schedule depositions of Michael Steffeck, Jason Chesson, and Kari Wolfe to take place at a mutually agreed-upon date and time in the District of Colorado. As a result, Loveland's Motion to Quash is now moot.

3. Accordingly, Loveland hereby withdraws its Motion to Quash Deposition and for a Protective Order, and respectfully requests that the Board vacate the telephone hearing scheduled for April 25, 2006.

Dated: April 21, 2006

Respectfully submitted,
