Opposition No. 91170368

DC Shoes, Inc.

v.

DOLLAMUR, LP

Cheryl Butler, Attorney, Trademark Trial and Appeal Board:

Applicant's answer was due on May 23, 2006. On May 22, 2006, applicant filed a motion to extend its time to answer by ninety days. Opposer filed a response, indicating that it was willing to agree to a thirty-day extension, but arguing that ninety days was too long under the circumstances. Applicant filed a reply.

Regrettably, the Board was not able to act on this motion earlier. Consequently, applicant's request is granted, and applicant's answer is due on August 20, 2006, as it requested.¹

Discovery and trial dates are extended as follows:

THE PERIOD FOR DISCOVERY TO CLOSE: January 30, 2007

30-day testimony period for party
in position of plaintiff to close: April 30, 2007

30-day testimony period for party
in position of defendant to close: June 29, 2007

15-day rebuttal testimony period to close: August 13, 2007

¹ The Board comments in passing, however, that it does not routinely grant such lengthy periods where there is no consent.

In each instance, a copy of the transcript of testimony together with copies of documentary exhibits, must be served on the adverse party within thirty days after completion of the taking of testimony. Rule 2.125.

Briefs shall be filed in accordance with Rule 2.128(a) and (b). An oral hearing will be set only upon request filed as provided by Rule 2.129.
