Opposition No. 91171282

Wendy L. Reed

v.

ML Bonnell Inc

Andrew P. Baxley, Interlocutory Attorney:

Opposer's time for filing a brief on the case has expired, and no brief is of record. Trademark Rule 2.128(a)(3) provides that when a party in the position of plaintiff fails to file a main brief, an order may be issued requiring plaintiff to show cause why the Board should not treat its failure to file a brief as a concession of the case. The rule further provides that if plaintiff fails to respond to the order or responds by indicating that it has lost interest in the case, judgment may be entered against plaintiff.

In view of the above, opposer is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to show cause why the Board should not treat its failure to file a brief as a concession of the case, failing which a judgment dismissing the notice of opposition with prejudice will be entered against opposer.
