v.

The Minerva Group, Inc.

Angela Lykos, Interlocutory Attorney

On September 12, 2006, the Board sent a notice of default to applicant because no answer had been filed.

It has come to the Board's attention that on August 28, 2006, applicant filed by certificate of mailing a request to amend to its identification of goods.¹

In view thereof, the notice of default is hereby discharged.

Applicant's proposed amendment does not contain the written consent of opposer. See Trademark Rule 2.133(a).

Applicant is therefore allowed until THIRTY (30) days from the mailing date of this order to submit opposer's written consent to the amendment, failing which it will be given no consideration, and proceedings shall be resumed.

Proceedings are otherwise suspended.
