Re: Opposition No. 91174723
Dean Elliott v. Bodywise Limited

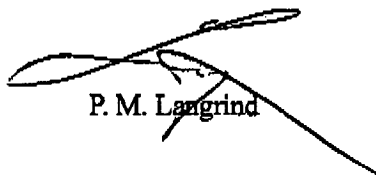

Dear Ms. Campbell:

Further to our recent telephone conversation, we enclose our request to extend the time to respond to Applicant's Motion for Summary Judgment, to which Applicant's attorney has given his consent.

For the reasons set forth in the Motion Opposer respectfully requests that the extension be granted.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

P. M. Langrind

MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO RESPOND

Opposer Dean Elliott, through his undersigned counsel, hereby requests that the period to respond to Applicant's Motion for Summary Judgment, currently set to close on January 27, 2008, be extended forty-five days, until March 3, 2008. On January 14, 2008, in a telephone communication with the undersigned, Applicant's counsel, Donald L. Dennison, Esq., gave his consent to this request for such an extension.

Opposer makes this request as Applicant's motion for summary judgment, dated December 28, 2007, was received by Opposer's counsel only on January 11, 2008. Opposer requires the additional period to consider Applicant's motion and additional outstanding discovery materials that Applicant's counsel has advised he will provide, and to prepare a responsive brief to Applicant's motion.

Accordingly, it is submitted that this request is well-taken and should be granted.

Dated: January 22, 2008

Respectfully submitted,
