Amba Investment Services
Ltd.

On March 5, 2009, applicant filed a motion to amend its application Serial No. 78449928, with opposer's consent, and opposer's withdrawal of the opposition with prejudice, contingent upon entry of the amendment. By the proposed amendment, applicant seeks to change the Class 35 recitation of services from "Outsourcing for the financial services industry in the field of investment research; accounting services; cost/price analysis, business management assistance, providing business information services to the financial services industry, business investigations, business management and organization consultation and business consultation services, business research, market studies, market research, market reports and studies, commercial information research relating to the financial services industry, business planning and appraisal; business consultancy services" to "Outsourcing for the financial services industry in the field of investment research; accounting services; cost/price analysis, providing business information services to the financial services industry, business investigations, and business consultation services, business research, market studies, market research, market reports and studies, commercial information research relating to the financial services industry, business planning and appraisal." The identifications in Classes 36 and 42 remain unchanged.

Inasmuch as the amendment is clearly limiting in nature as required by Trademark Rule 2.71(a), and because opposer consents thereto, it is approved and entered. See Trademark Rule 2.133(a).

The contingency in opposer's withdrawal having now been met, the opposition is dismissed with prejudice.
