v.

Catalyst Applied Technologies
Inc.

Karon E. Seldon, Paralegal Specialist

On July 18, 2007, the Board forwarded a notice of default to Defendant's address on record with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

On July 23, 2007, the Board's order was returned undeliverable. This office searched and found that service upon applicant could be effected when documents are mailed to the following address:

146 W 57th Street # 330 New York, New York 10019-3301

Accordingly, the notice of default is re-mailed to applicant's correct address.

In view of the circumstances herein, applicant is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to show cause why judgment by default should not be entered against applicant in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P.

55(b).
