v.

Brown Shoe Company, Inc.

Rochelle Ricks, Paralegal Specialist:

Applicant's consented motion filed August 31, 2009 to extend discovery and trial dates is granted. Trademark Rule 2.127(a).

Accordingly, the close of the discovery and testimony periods is reset as requested therein.

However, the Board notes that that the parties have filed numerous consented motions to extend or suspend proceedings regarding settlement negotiations since December 2007. It would appear that the parties have been afforded more than ample time in which to complete discovery or to settle matters in this case. In view thereof, the parties are advised that the Board will not grant further requests for extension of the discovery period or to suspend proceedings, even those stipulated to by the parties, absent a showing of unanticipated, extraordinary circumstances.
