Opposition No. 91181480

Citigroup Inc.

v.

United Air Lines, Inc.

Frances S. Wolfson, Interlocutory Attorney:

On June 7, 2010, applicant filed a proposed amendment to its application Serial No. 78857036.

By the proposed amendment applicant seeks to change the identification of goods in International Class 35 as follows:¹

from

"Promoting the sale of goods and services of others via a consumer rewards program under which consumers may redeem credits earned in the program toward the purchase of goods and services, such as air transportation, car rentals, hotel accommodations and general merchandise"

to

"Promoting the sale of goods and services of others via a consumer rewards program under which consumers may redeem credits earned in the program toward the purchase of goods and services, such as air transportation, car rentals, hotel accommodations and general merchandise, but excluding credit and debit card services."

¹ The goods in International Class 39, which are not involved in the instant opposition, remain unchanged.

Inasmuch as the amendment is clearly limiting in nature as required by Trademark Rule 2.71(a), and because the amendment is being filed pursuant to the parties' settlement agreement, and no objection to the amendment has been filed by opposer, it is approved and entered. See Trademark Rule 2.133(a).

If this resolves the dispute herein, opposer is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to file a withdrawal of the opposition, failing which the opposition will go forward on the application as amended. See Trademark Rule 2.106(c).
