Opposition No. 91182347

Wolfgang Puck

v.

Sovereign Brands, LLC

Karl Kochersperger, Paralegal

Applicant's consented motion filed February 10, 2010 to suspend and extend time to file its answer to the notice of opposition and to extend conferencing, disclosure, discovery and trial dates is granted. Trademark Rule 2.127(a).

Answer is due June 12, 2010. The conferencing, disclosure, discovery and trial dates are reset in accordance with applicant's motion.

The Board notes that there have been numerous suspensions granted in this proceeding. The parties are advised that to continue to seek further extensions after this period expires, the parties will be expected to make a showing of good cause for any further extensions. This is true even when both parties stipulate to the request. Should either party submit another motion for an extension of time or suspension, said motion must be accompanied by a showing of good cause, which must comprise a detailed status report regarding the progress of the parties' settlement negotiations, including when the last settlement proposal was sent, by whom, and when a response is expected, a recitation of the issues that have been resolved since the commencement of this proceeding, a list of issues that remain to be resolved, and a timetable for resolution. Confidential information may be so designated and will be barred from public viewing.

In each instance, a copy of the transcript of testimony together with copies of documentary exhibits, must be served on the adverse party within thirty days after completion of the taking of testimony. Trademark Rule 2.125.

Briefs shall be filed in accordance with Trademark Rule 2.128(a) and (b). An oral hearing will be set only upon request filed as provided by Trademark Rule 2.129.
