Foodrama, LLC

Andrew P. Baxley, Interlocutory Attorney:

Foodrama, LLC's ("Foodrama") consented motion (filed September 8, 2010) to suspend proceedings for settlement negotiations is granted to the extent modified by this order.¹ Proceedings herein are suspended until February 8, 2011, subject to the right of either party to request resumption at any time. See Trademark Rule 2.117(c).

¹ The parties, however, are advised that no further extensions or suspensions will be granted in the absence of a detailed report describing the progress of the the parties' settlement efforts. Such report should include a recitation of the issues that have been resolved, a recitation of the issues that remain to be resolved and, a firm timetable for resolution. Failure to include such a report may result in the Board's denial of the motion or stipulation to extend or suspend.

If there is no word from either party concerning the progress of their negotiations, upon conclusion of the suspension period, proceedings shall resume without further notice or order from the Board on February 9, 2011 under the schedule set forth in plaintiff's motion.

In each instance, a copy of the transcript of testimony together with copies of documentary exhibits, must be served on the adverse party within thirty days after completion of the taking of testimony. Trademark Rule 2.125.

Briefs shall be filed in accordance with Trademark Rule 2.128(a) and (b). An oral hearing will be set only upon request filed as provided by Trademark Rule 2.129.

If, during the suspension period, either of the parties or their attorneys should have a change of address, the Board should be so informed.
